“THE DAILY LESSON”
is an activity of the study group found at: www.iwso.org
It is a progression of excerpts from a transcript of a live class as it was recorded by Joel. It appears each day, together with the addition of corroborating scripture and inspired comments, to take into meditation and live with throughout your day.

Student’s note: There are words that are capitalized throughout this work. These words are used as if it were a synonym for, or as an activity of God. Also, the portions that are italicized are spontaneous meditations.

The subject of study for the month of October 2011 is:

THE DAILY LESSON – October 1, 2011
From the 1955 Kailua Study Group Series –
‘THE INVISIBLE NATURE OF YOUR LIFE’ by Joel S Goldsmith

“Good morning. (Class responds.) Returning to yesterday morning, let us remember that God is individual consciousness. God is the consciousness of the individual. God is your individual consciousness. Your individual consciousness is the storehouse of infinity, of infinite spiritual unfoldment.”
~Joel

Ezek 36:26,27 (to ,)
26 A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh.
27 And I will put my spirit within you,

(The Omnipresent Consciousness of God is within you. And I can say that to every single individual on this planet. Every one of us contains the Spirit promised us through Ezekiel and is capable of expressing Itself in an Infinite number of ways every day. ~Al)

THE DAILY LESSON – October 2, 2011
From the 1955 Kailua Study Group Series –
‘THE INVISIBLE NATURE OF YOUR LIFE’ by Joel S Goldsmith

“Now in the light of that I will read a few passages from Haggai, and you will remember that the word, ‘house,’ means consciousness, and since we are speaking of your house, we will be speaking of your consciousness.

‘Ye have sown much, and bring in little; ye eat but ye have not enough; ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink; ye clothe you, but there is none warm; and he that earneth wages earneth wages to put it into a bag with holes.

‘Thus, saith the Lord of hosts; Consider your ways.

‘Go up to the mountain and bring wood, and build the house; and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, saith the Lord.

‘Ye looked for much, and lo, it came to little; and when ye brought it home, I did blow upon it. Why? saith the Lord of hosts; Because of mine house that is waste, and ye run every man unto his own house.

‘Therefore the heaven over you is stayed from dew, and the earth is stayed from her fruit.
'And I called for a drought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the corn, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon men, and upon cattle, and upon all the labor of the hands.' Haggai 1: 6 – 11.

This house, this house, is our individual consciousness and when this consciousness is what we call human, it is barren. It lacks the substance, the element out of which spiritual or perfect harmonious demonstration must flow. This is true of everybody in their humanhood. In their humanhood they can, we can all say ‘we have sown much and bring in little; we’ve worked hard, accomplished nothing; we’ve earned a lot, and got nothing left to show for it’ because it came from this unenriched consciousness, this human consciousness, this barren consciousness. And, out of that, of course, comes nothing. ~Joel

Ezek 43:12
12 This is the law of the house; Upon the top of the mountain the whole limit thereof round about shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.

(The highest consciousness is Spirit - and Spirit is God. ~Al)
Then we’re told, ‘Thus saith the Lord of hosts, consider your ways.’ And then comes the instruction to go up into the mountain, to go up into high consciousness, to go up into the high places and bring wood and build a house. And so, we build a consciousness of spiritual truth, a temple of God, a divine consciousness.

We build that every time we read spiritual literature. Every time we meditate, every time we hear, every time we fill ourselves with the meat of life, or the water of life, or the wine of life or the bread of life – meaning the spiritual substance and food – we are building a temple of God, a house of God, or a house of spiritual consciousness – a consciousness of truth.”

~Joel

II Cor 5:1
1 For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

(Establish yourSelf on high ground. Build daily. Work on developing your House hourly. Or more...
God Consciousness dissolves earthly concepts. ~AI)
“Now then, when we have that, the Lord says, ‘I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified.’ ‘Ye look for much and it came to little and when ye brought it home, I did blow upon it.’ Certainly out of the barrenness of human consciousness, regardless of what we build, it doesn’t remain with us. It doesn’t last. It gives no satisfaction. We eat and hunger again. We drink and thirst again. We do all the things of human life: we dance, and we go to theatre and we buy homes and we have cars. And regardless of what we do, we find in it, out of the human consciousness, no satisfaction—whereas out of this spiritual awareness would come these same things, the same joys, the same foods, the same clothing but each bringing with it satisfaction and completeness.

Now as we come to the next chapter we hear this:

‘Yet now be strong, O Zerubbabel, saith the Lord; and be strong, O Joshua. . .; and be strong, all ye people of the land, saith the Lord, and work: for I am with you, saith the Lord of hosts.'
'According to the word that I covenanted with you when ye came out of Egypt, so my spirit remaineth among you: fear ye not.

'For thus saith the Lord of hosts; Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land.

'And I will shake all nations, and the desire of all nations shall come: and I will fill this house with glory, saith the Lord of hosts.

'The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith the Lord of hosts.

'The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, saith the Lord of hosts: and in this place will I give peace...’ (Haggai 2: 4 – 9 )

There quickly you have the Master's statement that 'man shall not live by bread alone,' and again, 'I am the bread. I am the wine. I am the water.'” ~Joel

Luke 20:25
25 And he said unto them, Render therefore unto Caesar the things which be Caesar's, and unto God the things which be God's.

(Where do we perceive power or supply? A god over something is only finite, God is Infinite – my life is temporary, His Life is eternal. ~Al)
“As we look to our personal selfhood for our wisdom or our good or our anything else in life, we will find that no matter what we draw out of it, it will leave us with no sense of permanent good or satisfaction. That is his saying that ‘and ye run every man into his own house’ – yes into his own intellect, into his own sense of wisdom, into his own spirituality, into his own religion instead of the realization that ‘God is my consciousness. God, the Infinite Invisible, is the source and fount of my being.’ And in going within, we do not go within to my own spirituality or my own goodness or my own strength or my own knowledge, but to this Infinite Invisible, which, when it flows, it flows that water which we are told is the wellspring of life eternal.

Now, the moment we come to that realization, then we’re told not only to be strong, but we’re told, ‘and work for I am with you.’ We are given that to do which we are doing here this morning, which we do every time we open a book of scripture or of inspired writings. Every time we sit down for a meditation, turning to the infinite source, that which brought forth all of the glories of earth – every time we draw ourselves into it, we are fulfilling these passages. And then we learn that with this the ‘silver is mine’, saith the Lord, ‘and the gold.’ We learn that even when it comes to our sense of physical supply – silver and gold or body or health – that it’s God’s and not ours.”

Acts 3:1-7
1 Now Peter and John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour.
2 And a certain man lame from his mother’s womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of them that entered into the temple;
3 Who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple asked an alms.
4 And Peter, fastening his eyes upon him with John, said, Look on us.
5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them.
6 Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk.
7 And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up: and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength.

(What have you in your house [Consciousness] to share when asked? Thoughts and reasoning of this world - or the Peace that passeth understanding?… ~Al)
“How much is it? How much is there of it then? If it is God’s, it is infinite and the moment we think of it as ours, there comes this sense of finiteness and regardless of how much we take in, there’s always nothing left over. Whereas in the realization that ‘the silver is mine, the gold is mine,’ this wisdom is God’s, this Spirit is God’s, then the more that pours out, the more is left over. Just as in the multiplication of loaves and fishes, there were only five to begin with, but twelve baskets full at the end, and probably the cruse of oil that began with a few drops might have left a whole bottle full over at the end.

Now. During our series at the Alexander Young Hotel last year, I told the story of the experience that gave me the first inner glimpse of immortality. It was very much like the story of the orange tree in the chapter on ‘Supply’ in The Infinite Way. You remember that we have come to the conclusion that the fruits on the trees, the crops, the dollars in our bank or pocket that this is not supply. That these are the forms which supply assumes in our experience. These are the forms of supply which are given us for our use, for our exchange, for our eating, so forth, drinking. But they are not supply or eventually we would eat them all up, or drink them all up or spend them all.” ~Joel

Ps 23:5
5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

(Go forth today and pour out a few drops from Your Infinite Source. Let God prepare the table and provide the fish and the bread, the wine – and all you need to do so. ~Al)

THE DAILY LESSON – October 7, 2011
From the 1955 Kailua Study Group Series – ‘THE INVISIBLE NATURE OF YOUR LIFE’ by Joel S Goldsmith

“Now. No one can ever lessen their supply because God Itself is the supply. There is no such thing as God giving supply or God sending supply. God Itself is the supply. When you have God, you have the infinity of supply. If you had a billion dollars and didn’t have God, you would have nothing. We have had people with a billion dollars that couldn’t even eat a meal.

Now when you have the forms of supply without the supply itself, you have nothing. That’s why we have a saying in this country, ‘of shirt sleeve to shirt sleeve in three generations.’ Because one individual has a consciousness of supply and accumulates it and then very lovingly leaves it to their children and grandchildren who, not having the consciousness of supply, promptly run through it, lose it, have it taken away from them, and within three generations find themselves back in the place where their ancestors began.

Someday the world will learn the folly of accumulating money for their children and will understand that they only bless their children in proportion as they help to develop a consciousness of supply for their children. And not leave the forms of supply to deprive them of the great opportunity that God has given to each one of us to live by our own consciousness.

That also came up in Hebrew scripture when it was originally taught that the sins of the fathers are visited on the children unto the third and fourth generation. But 200 years later it was discovered that this is not true. ‘No more shall it be said in Israel that the parents have eaten sour grapes and the children’s teeth are set on edge for now every man will be rewarded according to his own life and everyone will be punished according to their own misdeeds.’ We can carry this out into the activity of supply – that everyone will be supplied in accord, in accordance with their own state of consciousness. And everyone will lack in accord with their own state of consciousness.” ~Joel

Rev 21:5-7 And he said (to ;)
5…. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.
6 And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely.
7 He that overcometh shall inherit all things;

(Your real endowment is the infinity of Christ, for now are we the sons of God… This promise comes without limitation of any kind. ~Al
“Well, as we begin to perceive that God is our individual consciousness and that God is infinite, we begin to perceive the nature of supply as that which is invisible, and we no longer judge by appearances as to the amount of our supply. Nor do we ever come to that place in human experience where there is an absence of supply in our normal experience.

When experiences come, such as came to Rickenbacker, and experiences that come to others on the desert or in the midst of war or sudden depressions, where there is a temporary absence of forms of supply, then with this wisdom the years of the locust are quickly restored. Then the flow begins quickly to come.” ~Joel

Joel 2:21-26 (to 3rd, )
21 ¶ Fear not, O land; be glad and rejoice: for the Lord will do great things.
22 Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field: for the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth her fruit, the fig tree and the vine do yield their strength.
23 Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the Lord your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month.
24 And the floors shall be full of wheat, and the fats shall overflow with wine and oil.
25 And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the cankerworm, and the caterpiller, and the palmerworm, my great army which I sent among you.
26 And ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of the Lord your God, that

THE DAILY LESSON – October 9, 2011
From the 1955 Kailua Study Group Series –
‘THE INVISIBLE NATURE OF YOUR LIFE’ by Joel S Goldsmith

“Now, an experience came to me before the one of the fruit that gave me my first glimpse of immortality. I suppose that I was a little more concerned about the subject of dying or death than most people. Firstly because in my youth I had always been more or less ill, and then I developed a curiosity about this life, and I, I wanted to see it and keep watching it. And I dreaded the day when I would have to leave it and have to die. And for awhile it was a very frustrating experience because there you know, well, it’s inevitable, it’s got to be, but we don’t want it to be. And there comes a little desperate battle to see can’t we beat the rap.

And, on this particular day, I was driving and for some reason or other this thought of death came to me with all of the distaste that goes with it when I remembered, I had just come from the barber shop and had had a haircut and a manicure. All of a sudden the thought came to me, ‘oh, where is that hair they cut off and where are those fingernails?’ ‘Oh, they’re in the furnace already. But they are not bothering me. It doesn’t seem to concern me at all that they’re in the furnace, and I know why because I’m not there with them. I’m here and all is well.’

Oh that sort of made a difference because, quickly, I could see that they could just as well take the fingers and hand and arm if they wanted it and throw that in the furnace too. But I would still be here and so that would not concern me. And, of course, it isn’t very difficult to see how you can go through the whole rest of the body and let them throw it all in the furnace since I would still be here separate and apart from that experience, and my life, my consciousness would be going forward.” ~Joel

John 8:23 ye
23… ye are of this world; I am not of this world.

(My Consciousness is infinite and not of this body and not of this world. ~Al)

THE DAILY LESSON – October 10, 2011
From the 1955 Kailua Study Group Series –
‘THE INVISIBLE NATURE OF YOUR LIFE’ by Joel S Goldsmith

“Now when you once see that, you begin to see that you are something separate and apart from your body – just as much separate and apart from your body as you are separate and apart from your automobile even while your automobile is carrying you across the mountains. At no part are you a part of an automobile. The automobile is just an instrument or vehicle for your use. But you have no personal contact with it whatsoever – no identity or identification with it. You’re not a part of it. You and the automobile are always separate and apart from each other. And so you will learn through this experience, if you’ll follow it through, that regardless of where your body is I am right here.

Now, as you perceive that, you will see that this I, which I am, is permanently here, eternally here, and then you will know why God is your true identity because only God is immortal. Only God is eternal, and the nature of God – consciousness – is a continued state of immortality, of eternal being, of eternality, and that is what I am. That is what I individually am, a state of divine consciousness.” ~Joel

John 18:36 (to :)
36 Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world:

(We of our own selves can do nothing – let us rest and watch the ever-present Spirit within live our lives for us, and as Us. ~Al)

THE DAILY LESSON – October 11, 2011
From the 1955 Kailua Study Group Series –
‘THE INVISIBLE NATURE OF YOUR LIFE’ by Joel S Goldsmith

“Now this that I am, which is immortal, is likewise infinite, and so you will realize through this that you are never using up your life. You are never using up your life. You are never using up your strength. You are never using up your span of years – never, never because the only ‘you’ there is exists as the consciousness which uses this as an infinity.

Now that does not mean immortality of the soul and death of the body as it is understood in the orthodox thought. Nor does it mean that this is a hope for us with the experience of the discarding of the body still to be faced. No, no that may go on for awhile since ‘death is the last enemy to be overcome.’ But if you will perceive this point of your true identity as the consciousness which permeates this body, which uses this body as an instrument or vehicle, you will come into the experience that you witness in nature.
You will shed this body – not by death, but by the shedding of the skin, or the shedding of the nails or the shedding of the hair, or the shedding of the atoms or parts that make up the organs and functions of the body with a constant renewal. Just as the bark falls off, a new bark is there. The same tree is always there, the same body. Just so you will eventually see that this body, yes, even this body will ‘die daily,’ will slough off and be renewed so that always this body will remain in its strength, in its health, in its vitality, in its youthfulness.” ~Joel

I Cor 15:31 I die
31… I die daily.

Cor 15:44 There,45
44… There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.
45 And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit.

(The quickening Spirit or God Consciousness is within us right now, bursting to be revealed. It is realized when we are still enough to let the layers of human concepts and beliefs fall away into nothingness. I surrender, die and take no thought…….
Speak Lord – thy servant heareth…………….. ~Al)
“To see God as your individual consciousness, the I of your being, ends these periods of drought, these periods in which not only your supply vanishes, but your body. But the very moment that you perceive that you exist as consciousness, out of that consciousness you get this word that was covenanted when we came out of Egypt. Egypt is darkness and ignorance.

Now what is the promise that comes to us as we come out of the ignorance and darkness of the Old Testament? It’s the word, ‘I.’ The covenant that was made with us is this:

‘I will never leave thee nor forsake thee. As I was with Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Moses, so I am with you. I will always be with you. I will be with you unto the end of the world.’
That is the covenant. That is the very first thing that happened.”
~Joel

Hag 2:5
5 According to the word that I covenanted with you when ye came out of Egypt, so my spirit remaineth among you: fear ye not.

(The original promise from God is still, and always be, the same. ‘Fear not, I am with you. There is no place you can go without Me. I am within You, (your consciousness) and every atom in the universe.’ Darkness is just a shadow, a perception, or a concept... Laugh at it knowingly, because you know the Truth and leave “world-accepted scene” behind you and bask in the Light with Me. ~Al)

THE DAILY LESSON – October 13, 2011
From the 1955 Kailua Study Group Series –
‘THE INVISIBLE NATURE OF YOUR LIFE’ by Joel S Goldsmith

“Well let me put it this way: the very first time that we have a spiritual inner experience, one of the very first things we hear is something like, ‘Thou art my Son,’ or ‘I will never leave thee,’ or ‘Fear not.’ Or something like that takes place within. It’s one of the very first experiences we have as we come out of our religious ignorance and darkness into religious wisdom.

Practically everyone I have known who has had a spiritual experience has had it with some form of a promise involved – something of an assurance of a presence, of an assurance of a power, of an assurance of life immortal, of an assurance of supply or protection. And that then is the first covenant that is made with us as we come out of our religious superstition and ignorance. And so we find ‘My Spirit remaineth among you.’” ~Joel

Gen 28:15 (to 5th ,)
15 And, behold, I am with thee, and will keep thee in all places whither thou goest, and will bring thee again into this land; for I will not leave thee,

(There is only one insufficiency, or one sin, and that is only when there is a belief that we could somehow be separate and apart from God. Rest now in His everlasting arms… ~Al)

THE DAILY LESSON – October 14, 2011
From the 1955 Kailua Study Group Series –
‘THE INVISIBLE NATURE OF YOUR LIFE’ by Joel S Goldsmith

“Now this ‘my’ which is the ‘My peace’ that the Master spoke of – ‘My peace give I unto you not as the world giveth… My Spirit remaineth with you.’ The Spirit, presence, power, consciousness of God remains with you, and now you’ll find that ‘the glory of this latter house shall be greater than the former.’

Once the realization comes that I exist not as body, as consciousness, I exist not as body but as consciousness, as Spirit, as the very consciousness of God, then out of that consciousness comes all of the rest. And then we’re told that ‘I will fill this house with glory.’ All of these things that beforehand were taken from us – do you remember, the corn, and the new wine and the oil, all that the ground bringeth forth was to be covered with a drought? Now we’re told that it’s restored – now in this new consciousness, in this realization of true consciousness, in this realization of true identity, the drought disappears; the Spirit of God is upon us, the spirit of healing, of consolation that Isaiah voiced as the Christ when he voiced it.” ~Joel

Rom 8:9 (to .)
9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you.

(The only thing that can really be restored is our realization of our true Identity. ~Al)

THE DAILY LESSON – October 15, 2011

‘THE INVISIBLE NATURE OF YOUR LIFE’ by Joel S Goldsmith

“So we come to two points: one a reminder of the nature of supply which is the Infinite Invisible appearing as form. And once that is realized, never again can one be without supply. ‘Never have I seen the righteous begging bread.’ The righteous are those who are one with truth, one with God. Never has an individual who has known that supply is invisible, spiritual, Omnipresent – wherever I am supply is – never can that individual be without supply except in those moments of stress or strain as Moses was on the trip from Egypt – and then only as a temporary experience. But through the realization of truth, that drought is quickly ended.” ~Joel

John 6:32
32 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.
(Our Father always provides our Daily Bread. It is comes whether we ask for it or not. We just have to recognize its presence… ~Al)

THE DAILY LESSON – October 16, 2011
From the 1955 Kailua Study Group Series –
‘THE INVISIBLE NATURE OF YOUR LIFE’ by Joel S Goldsmith

“So it is that as we attain the realization of our true identity as an invisible life so that when we look in the mirror we no longer say, ‘Look what I look like!’ We say, ‘Oh, my body needs a little jerking up somewhere.’ We don’t identify what we see in the mirror with ourselves because that is not I; that is my body. But the very moment that I realize I am I, my body begins to change form. The body only looks like what it does look like because we, ignorantly, have been identifying that body as our self. That’s all.

Through false identification we have made this body look like what it looks like, whereas, with right identification we can quickly begin to change its nature so that we can say ten years from now that we look ten years younger than we look now. It can be so, and in many cases it is so. And in every case of realization, it is to some degree so.
I have witnessed in my experience dozens and dozens of people in their eighties and nineties who were far, far, far from any such appearance, and only because of the degree of their realization of this truth. Because out of the consciousness of God cannot come age, limitation, weakness, or death. So it’s a question of whether or not we realize ourselves to be God-Consciousness or mortal, material, human, limited, finite consciousness. Out of that must come all of the other.

Now, it is the same way. We are in the habit of walking down the street and seeing people and believing that we are seeing people when we are only seeing their bodies. Now the first miracle that comes into your experience comes when you learn consciously to walk down the street and begin to declare to yourself: ‘Thank you, Father. I’m not fooled by the appearances. I know this is not John, Bill, Mary. I know that behind those eyes invisible to sight is the man of God, spiritual being, true identity, Christhood.’ ~Joel

24 Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.

(Christ’s judgment sees only Itself, appearing as each individual form. ~Al)

THE DAILY LESSON – October 17, 2011
From the 1955 Kailua Study Group Series –
‘THE INVISIBLE NATURE OF YOUR LIFE’ by Joel S Goldsmith

“You’d be surprised that within two or three days, changes begin to come into your own experience just through the ability to perceive the invisible Christ where, beforehand, you were seeing human beings walking the earth. That’s when...you see all of our work is based on an work. In other words, there must be a conscious realization of truth. There is no mysterious God outside sitting around waiting to bless us because we met here this morning. Whatever blessing comes into our experience comes through a transformation of consciousness that takes place within us. ‘Turn ye and live... God has no pleasure in your dying.’ But it’s ‘turn YE.’ ‘Be ye renewed by the transforming of your mind.’ “ ~Joel

Ezek 18:32
32 For I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord God: wherefore turn yourselves, and live ye.
(This does not mean to turn ye and follow a man, or a church-idea, or a teaching. There will actually be a micro-second of awareness when there is an overwhelming spark in Consciousness - and we are transformed from man whose-thoughts-are-in-his-brain to realizing that I Am. I am included in the One Consciousness, not separate, or outside looking in. From then on this-world can have no power over us as Life IS everlasting. Life will never be the same again. We no longer look to man whose breath is in his nostrils (ourselves) for our life or supply – we look to God to pour his Love out through us – out to others on the path. We begin pour “out” from the endless pool of our being and have no desire to take “in”… There is nothing more to receive from Omnipresence as we are already included in it. ~AI)

THE DAILY LESSON – October 18, 2011
From the 1955 Kailua Study Group Series –
‘THE INVISIBLE NATURE OF YOUR LIFE’ by Joel S Goldsmith

“Every blessing that comes into your experience – except the temporary blessing that comes through your practitioner or teacher – every real and permanent blessing must come through a transformation of your consciousness, through an activity of truth in your consciousness. It is after you are instructed and taught and lifted up to some measure of realization, you must walk out on the street and not be fooled by appearances but see through the eye of the human being or the animal, or the tree and say: ‘No longer do I believe that is a coconut tree. Now I know it’s the form or body of the coconut tree. The coconut tree is inside, invisible to sight.’

Ah, once you know that you will know why, in its season, the coconuts will appear externally. Why? Because the coconut tree is so busy manufacturing them inside. And we think we are looking at a coconut tree out here when all we’re seeing is a bark of the tree, one that sloughs off day by day and ever is renewed by an invisible activity. So it is with us.

You are not seeing me, and I am not seeing you. There is an invisible activity going on within me, which is an activity of truth in my consciousness. That activity of truth in my consciousness is renewing me day by day – physically, mentally, morally, financially. Whatever way is necessary for my earthly experience, this inner consciousness is renewing day by day. Day by day the manna falls. Day by day this inner selfhood, which is my invisible being, is manufacturing the particular form of coconuts that I may need for daily experience.” ~Joel

16 For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.

II Cor 4:18
18 While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

(Any reaction to the activity of the human senses is but a temporary distraction. It is plugging into a mental picture and accepting its effect. An experience of God contains none of that. Be unaffected… Be still… Listen beyond words and thoughts. ~Al)
“Now. Each one of us is the same God-Consciousness since there is only one. Therefore, the degree of our demonstration lies in the degree of our conscious realization of the truth. We all have the same substance. We all have the same life. We all have the same God. We all have the same, ah, inner activity, but the degree of our individual realization of it determines the degree of our demonstration of it. Our Source is infinite. The degree of our realization of the infinite nature of our Source determines the degree of our outer expression.

Now this is true not merely in the things that we call supply like money, food, clothing, housing, this is equally true in this house, this house, which is a vehicle. This house must be renewed day by day and season by season by the same activity of truth in consciousness, by the same realization that I am not what appears outwardly. I am the spiritual life force which is functioning from within to the without. It isn’t I have a life force. I am that life force. That life force constitutes my true and individual being. The more I realize that, the more it flows in harmonious and infinite form and variety.” ~Joel 23 ¶ And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

24 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.

(The realization of Truth is in direct proportion to the work done to let… Let go of the self-ego - and let Infinite Spirit loose to express Itself. ~Al) identity. God is the Source. God is the invisibility of you, and that constitutes your true being.” ~Joel

Gen 5:1
1 This is the book of the generations of Adam. In the day that God created man, in the likeness of God made he him;

(God is the source of all creation. I am that I am. ~Al)

THE DAILY LESSON – October 21, 2011
From the 1955 Kailua Study Group Series –
‘THE INVISIBLE NATURE OF YOUR LIFE’ by Joel S Goldsmith

“You are the invisible life force. Your body is one of the forms which you assume. Your dollars are another form which you assume. Your home is another form which you assume. Your business is another form. But you are the animating life of your being, of your body, of your home, of your business. Do you see that? You, you, just as much as you are the directive force of your automobile, so are you the animating force of your entire career. Let’s meditate a few minutes.” ~Joel

Acts 17:28 (to ;)
28 For in him we live, and move, and have our being;

(Who am I?
What am I?
All that God is.

~Al)
give you whatever right thoughts, right direction, right guidance is needed for your experience.” ~Joel

Matt 6:31-34 (to .)
31 Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?
32 (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.
33 But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.
34 Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself.

(If we start in meditation here: “I can of mine own self do nothing – the Spirit within doeth the work.” And now contemplate on that...and carry on in that attitude. We have let the ego go. As it dissolves into the nothingness it really is - we have opened out the way for Christ to go about living our lives. ...Speak Father, thy servant heareth... ~Al)

THE DAILY LESSON – October 23, 2011
From the 1955 Kailua Study Group Series –
‘THE INVISIBLE NATURE OF YOUR LIFE’ by Joel S Goldsmith

“Once you have learned the practice of meditation up to the point of contact before venturing out of the house or on any of the daily affairs, then you will find if it is necessary for you to go someplace where you hadn’t planned on going, the thought or idea will come to you to do it, and you’ll do it. If it is necessary to place an ad, you’ll go out and place an ad, and wonder why. In other words, you will always be led to take the right human footsteps. We are not going to destroy the human mind.” ~Joel

Il Cor 12:8,9 (to :)
8 For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.
9 And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee:
(There is no need to ask for or to demonstrate any thing of this world. There is only one demonstration and that is Thy Grace. Thy Grace is my sufficiency – my security, job, health, protection, direction, harmony and so forth. It’s all included in the realization of God. Seek ye first, My Kingdom, abide in Me, early and often and always… ~Al)

THE DAILY LESSON – October 24, 2011

‘THE INVISIBLE NATURE OF YOUR LIFE’ by Joel S Goldsmith

“We are not going to destroy the activity of the human body by saying we don’t have to go to business or that we don’t have to design new houses or new dresses; we do. But, as the click is received inside, as the contact is made, that takes over and certainly reduces our human footsteps by millions and always is at hand, available to tell us what these next steps are that we must take. And, while we take them, It performs the work that is given for us to do.

We merely go through the motions of carrying it out on the outer plane while It goes before us to ‘make the crooked places straight,’ to prepare the way, to do everything necessary for our protection, for our guidance, for our direction, for our support. And so it is that it is only when we come that far to trust the action of the Infinite Invisible that we will not make a human step without Its inner assurance that we can be certain that we’re on the right path on the outer.” ~Joel

Prov 3:5,6
5 ¶ Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.
6 In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

(Practice listening… ~Al)

‘THE INVISIBLE NATURE OF YOUR LIFE’ by Joel S Goldsmith

“Now you noticed this morning that our meditation went far longer than usual, and for a reason, that it just did not come to the point of release. It did not come to the point where it had taken over, and so there had to be a patience in waiting because had I started before it came, the only thing you would have gotten is my stored-up memory of truth in which is no power whatsoever. There is no power in our memorized truth.” ~Joel

Matt 6:6-8
6 But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.
7 But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.
8 Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

(All human understanding or thought is limited. The Father’s is infinite and all-knowing. Who would you rather listen to?

Speak Father, thy servant heareth...
~Al)

THE DAILY LESSON – October 26, 2011
From the 1955 Kailua Study Group Series – ‘THE INVISIBLE NATURE OF YOUR LIFE’ by Joel S Goldsmith

“There is no power in the manna of yesterday – nothing, nothing. Unless a message can come forth imbued with the Spirit, unless it can come forth out of the Consciousness of God, it comes to you with no power. It just comes as something you hear and probably afterwards forget or criticize, and rightly so.” ~Joel

Isa 40:31
31 But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.
(Father, I have no power of my own, no wisdom, no judgment, no desire. I wait, and listen, and watch for Your Presence to flow... ~Al)

THE DAILY LESSON – October 27, 2011
From the 1955 Kailua Study Group Series –
‘THE INVISIBLE NATURE OF YOUR LIFE’ by Joel S Goldsmith

“I have no objection to anybody criticizing anything that comes out of my mouth that didn’t come out through the activity of God. But that is why I will wait and wait, and some students have been with me in classes when ten minutes after the class started I said, ‘That’s enough tonight. We’re going home,’ and we went home.

And some have been with me when, when the class didn’t start. We just sat and had a meditation and I said, ‘I’m sorry. The class is over. Go home,’ and we went home. Why? Oh, I’m sure you know I could sit and talk for an hour, but I also can assure you of this: that if I did there would be no substance in it. There would be no activity, no life, no healing. It wouldn’t be the word of God; it would just be that which Joel remembered and that, I can tell you, is not the ‘bread of life.’” ~Joel

John 6:63
63 It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

(There are two kinds of “knowing” truth – human knowing that is intellectual, taught, reasoned, or proven by laws of science or nature. Spiritual knowing is felt within or gnos beyond words and thoughts. Your consciousness is literally included in God’s omniscience. ~Al)

THE DAILY LESSON – October 28, 2011
From the 1955 Kailua Study Group Series –
‘THE INVISIBLE NATURE OF YOUR LIFE’ by Joel S Goldsmith

“The Master knew what the ‘bread of life’ is: ‘My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.’ And so if I wait until the click comes, if I wait until the answer comes, then what comes out of me is spontaneous. You may have heard the words before. You may have heard everything before. It makes no difference. That has nothing to do with it. The Spirit is flowing through those words, and it is now the word of God. ‘It is quick and sharp and powerful.’ Do you see that? And it does produce an effect out here in what we call this visible world. So we must be.” ~Joel

Matt 10:19 take,20
19… take no thought how or what ye shall speak: for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak.
20 For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you.

(The Spirit of God is introduced to the ear through It’s instruments. It is heard (felt) within in the absolute. ~Al)

THE DAILY LESSON – October 29, 2011
From the 1955 Kailua Study Group Series –
‘THE INVISIBLE NATURE OF YOUR LIFE’ by Joel S Goldsmith

“I had a call this morning and I asked that the man wait one hour before doing what he had in mind doing that instant. ‘Wait, wait one hour. Don’t do it until God is on the scene. Give me a chance to meditate, to ponder until I get the assurance God is on the scene. Then do anything you like, because I don’t even care then if you do a wrong thing. It will be corrected.’ I don’t care how many wrong things any of us do as long as we first have the click of God because if we do make a mistake – it isn’t likely that we will, certainly not many – but if we do, it will be corrected before any damage is done.” ~Joel
John 11:9,10
9 Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.
10 But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

(Seek ye first the Light, and it will be a lamp unto your feet. ~Al)

THE DAILY LESSON – October 30, 2011
From the 1955 Kailua Study Group Series –
‘THE INVISIBLE NATURE OF YOUR LIFE’ by Joel S Goldsmith

“Our function is to be sure that the blight of human consciousness isn’t going to touch our crops, that we are imbued with this same Spirit, this covenant that was given us in the beginning, the assurance of ‘I am with you. I will never leave you nor forsake thee. Whithersoever thou goest, I will go.’” ~Joel

Rom 8:6-9 (to .)
6 For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.
7 Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.
8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.
9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you.

Matt 28:20 and
20… and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

(The infinite invisible I Am (God Consciousness) is with you now and forever. Amen. ~Al)
Yes, yes, yes. Today we greet with us a lady from Canada, and tomorrow we will be greeting a man from California and we hope a lady from Australia.

Thank you.” ~Joel

Isa 40:31
31 But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.

(STOP. The invisible nature of your Life appears at a time when ye think not - Be still, wait and watch with me.

I am waiting upon the Lord for My Grace. I seek only the Word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God… I am not seeking anything of this world, just His Presence. I know that all the things needed for my work today are included in the Experience of the fullness of God. I can of mine own self do nothing..........

Speak Lord, thy servant heareth. ~Al)
