is an activity of the study group found at: www.iwso.org
It is a progression of excerpts from tapes recorded by Joel, or from his books or writings.

It appears each day, together with the addition of corroborating scripture and inspired comments from Al Denninger, to take into meditation and live with throughout your day.

Student’s note: There are words that are capitalized throughout this work. These words are used as if it were a synonym for, or as an activity of God. Also, the portions that are italicized are spontaneous meditations.

THE DAILY LESSON – June 24, 2015

CHAPTER 1

THE MYSTERY OF THE INVISIBLE

“All through the ages men have sought to understand the mystery of life. They have searched for that something called the secret of life, particularly the secret of success and happiness; and like those who sought for the Holy Grail, they have looked for it every place in the world except where it is to be found.” ~Joel

Luke 17:21

21 Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is within you.

“The secret is found at a time when you think not – and in the last place you would ever think to look.” ~Al

THE DAILY LESSON – June 25, 2015

“The truly successful people of life are not readily identified because, while it is easy to find the person who has acquired the most millions or the one who has gained the greatest fame in some area, it is not always easy to find those who have attained real success. Success should bring happiness, and especially inner peace and security, and so true success means something far different from the mere acquisition of things or the attainment of personal power or glory.

Spiritual living may carry with it just as much of fame and fortune as material living, but these are acquired, first of all, not as the goal, but as the added things, and secondly, not from without, but from within through an understanding of their Source. In material living, whatever can be gained from without is of necessity limited, but there is absolutely no limit to the attainment of a person who has discovered the secret of the inner life. Therein lies the difference between material and spiritual living.” ~Joel

Ps 147:5

5 Great is our Lord, and of great power: his understanding is infinite.

Luke 15:31

31 And he said unto him, Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine.

“Man can dream anything he can imagine. Spirit is already Everything.” ~Al

THE DAILY LESSON – June 26, 2015

“The secret of the inner life is revealed through meditation which, in its earliest stages, is an act of conscious awareness whereby we make contact with an area of consciousness within ourselves which is actually the storehouse of our lives. There was a time when man was pure, spiritual being, when he lived entirely from within himself, when his thoughts always remained at the center of his being, and life flowed out from within – ideas came from within, means of action came from within, and whenever there was an apparent need, all that he had to do was to close his eyes, go within, and let it come forth into expression.

We have no actual knowledge of this period or of its ending, but we do know that the Bible symbolically relates the story of Adam and Eve who lived a divinely spiritual life without a problem, but who were compelled to leave the Garden of Eden and thereafter experienced all the troubles of human living – materialistic living. We are told that the reason for this fall from Grace was the acceptance of the belief in two powers – good and evil.¹ It was an act of consciousness and, despite the commonly accepted theological interpretation, was not in any way related to sex.

The Garden of Eden episode contains a lesson in living for all of us. How often we feel that our lives are made or marred by some external act, but this is never true because it is always something that takes place within our consciousness that brings about the change for good or evil, and in the allegory of Adam and Eve, the downfall of man is explained as the acceptance of the belief in good and evil.” ~Joel

Gen 2:16,17

16 And the Lord God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat:

17 But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.

“Scripture does not say the ‘tree of good and evil’ had some kind of power – Scripture clearly says the ‘Knowledge’ of good and evil... Or a ‘sense’ of separation from the Oneness of the Garden Kingdom of God.” ~Al

THE DAILY LESSON – June 27, 2015

“Another symbolic story in Scripture is that of the prodigal son. Here, the son of the king, who in and of himself was nothing, but who as the heir of the king was not only regal but wealthy, decided to cut himself off from the source of his good, that is, from his Father’s house, his Father-consciousness. Taking the substance which he felt was his due, he began to live on that finite and limited amount that he had received. Living thus finitely, he cut himself off from his Source. Whatever money he spent left him with that much less; every day of life he lived found him with a day less to live; every bit of strength or substance that he used found him with that much less, because he was using the substance that he had without being able to replenish it from the Source from which he had cut himself off by his own act.” ~Joel

Luke 15:11-31

11 And he said, A certain man had two sons:

12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living.

13 And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want.

15 And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

16 And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him.

17 And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father’s have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger!

18 I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee,

19 And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.

20 And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.

21 And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

22 But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet:

23 And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry:

24 For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry.

25 Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard music and dancing.

26 And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant.

27 And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound.

28 And he was angry, and would not go in: therefore came his father out, and entreated him.

29 And he answering said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment: and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends:

30 But as soon as this thy son was come, which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf.

31 And he said unto him, Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine.

“We are always Included in the Father’s Kingdom – but do we always recognize it? ~Al

THE DAILY LESSON – June 28, 2015

“That same principle is brought out in the lesson of the vine and the branches which the Master gave to his disciples in the fifteenth chapter of John: I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.

If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

Herein lies the essence of biblical wisdom: Cut off from the vine, the branch withers, no longer having access to the Source; cut off from the Father’s house, or consciousness, the prodigal consorts with the swine; cut off from their Source and expelled from the Garden of Eden, Adam and Eve are compelled to live on their own substance.” ~Joel

John 15:4-8 (to ,)

4 Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

5 I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.

6 If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

7 If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

8 Herein is my Father glorified,

“We have a choice: either we Live in a state of Infinite Presence, Supply and Consciousness or we live by our own effort limited by everything we can think of.” ~Al

THE DAILY LESSON – June 29, 2015

“In all three illustrations, there is the one spiritual lesson: When we are cut off from the Source of our being, we are using up our own life – our own mind, strength, health, wisdom, guidance, and direction – and eventually we come to that period when we are withered. On the other hand, by maintaining our contact with the vine, by maintaining our relationship with the Father as the son or heir, or by remaining in Eden, in the kingdom of God, we draw on the infinite Storehouse. This way leads to eternity, immortality, infinity, harmony, completeness, and perfection.” ~Joel

Ps 91:1

1 He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

THE DAILY LESSON – June 30, 2015

“As human beings living a materialistic life in the world, we are the branch that is cut off from the tree; we are the prodigal without a Father; we are that Adam expelled from the Garden. Living such a life, there is no God-government, God-protection, or God-sustenance. Infants, children, young men, and young women suffer and die; the aged are infirm, decrepit, and worn out because from the cradle to the grave there is a sense of separation from their Source.” ~Joel

Rom 8:38,39 (to 4th ,)

38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God,

Ps 23:1-4 (to ;)

1 The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow [perception] of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;

“The fact is – we are included in God’s government, always were and always will be. Only an erroneous thought can temporarily mislead us... But He restoreth My Soul... and leadeth Me back to The Way.” ~Al

THE DAILY LESSON – July 1, 2015

“The truth is that it is not possible to pray to God and thus receive the benefits of God; it is not possible to be just a good man or woman – even a churchgoing man or woman – and thereby have contact with God, because the contact with God is not made in any external way. The whole world has been, and is, riding to hell all the while it is praying to God to save it, but never getting any answer!

That is why, in this age, the entire world is seeking an answer to this riddle, and many are seeking it through prayer and meditation. There can be no peace within or without until there is an abiding in the Word and letting the Word abide in us, a returning to the Father’s house through this inner contact and drawing our substance, not from one another, not by preying upon one another, but by drawing upon the substance which is of the Father.” ~Joel

I Cor 2:14

14 But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

“My Friends, we are gathered here together in Oneness, Soul to Soul and Spirit to Spirit - Abide with Me and I promise to Be with you, and we shall Dwell in the Kingdom forever.” ~Al

“Is not the whole secret of life contained and summed up in that brief conversation which took place between the Master and his disciples just after Jesus had missed his midday meal? He had been giving a lesson to the woman at the well of Samaria, and the disciples ‘prayed him, saying, Master, eat.’

And do you remember his answer? ‘I have meat to eat that ye know not of.’ That was much the same answer that he gave to the woman at the well when she asked, ‘Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?’ How indeed could he do this?

But he explained that he had water, wellsprings of it, and ‘whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.’ And later to the multitudes seeking food, the Master said, ‘I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.’ And to Thomas, ‘I am the way, the truth, and the life.’

He was teaching that within us is embodied all that is necessary for our life and for our unfoldment – for our business, companionship, and supply. Within us, through the grace of God, the Father speaks, ‘Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine’ – all that I have! Where is this Father? Where is this ‘all that I have’? and the Master says, ‘Within you – the kingdom of God is within you.’ The kingdom of God, the allness of God, is within us!” ~Joel

“And so it is, the Spirit of Christ is Infinitely expressed. Why? How? Because:”

13 I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.

Phil 4:13

“Now and forever.” ~Al

THE DAILY LESSON – July 3, 2015

“And so we learn the mystery of life: We learn that if we are to tap the infinite Storehouse, if we are to draw to ourselves infinite good, infinite harmony, abundance, wholeness, perfection, completeness, joy, satisfaction, safety, and security, it is necessary to draw these out from within our own being.

To the human being, taught to look outside of himself, and even in his prayers to look up to heaven, or to look at a crucifix, a star, or some other symbol, it comes as a strange revelation that not only is there nothing out there, but there is no need of there being anything out there. Even if there were, we would have no need of it, because ‘I have meat to eat that ye know not of. (I can give you water, living water, even without a bucket, even without a well.) I am the way, the truth, and the life’ – I am He, and all that is, is within me.” ~Joel

Matt 10:19, 20

19 But when they deliver you up, take no thought how or what ye shall speak: for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak.

20 For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you.

“Even though the outward picture seems impossible to survive, we shall be given the Divine spark of Inspiration to prove that Truth is True for everyone, that Life is Eternal and the answer you seek is Love.” ~Al

THE DAILY LESSON – July 4, 2015

“The only way that this meat, wine, and water can be drawn out into visible expression is by making contact with that inner Source. We are not accustomed to the idea that all that we are seeking is already embodied within us; we are not familiar enough with Jesus’ promises; we have not lived with His words and teaching long enough: ‘Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine.’ Where? Within us! Within our own consciousness.” ~Joel

Luke 17:20,21

20 And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation:
21 Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is within you.

“You know when you have what you need... When you feel that you are Included in Omnipresent supply. I like to say, ‘and all that is left is a smile.’

Happy Independence Day! ~Al

THE DAILY LESSON – July 5, 2015

“So it is that, as we learn to meditate and discover this kingdom within, a great mystery begins to reveal itself. When we stop to think about it, we cannot help but realize that everything in the world that we have ever feared is external to our own being, whether it is a person or an army, whether bullets or poison, climate, weather, or storms; whether it is a fear of being up in the air or down in the ocean – regardless of what it is that we have feared or are fearing, it is always something external to us. The first secret, therefore, that we learn in meditation, the very first revelation that comes to us, is that all power is within us and that there is no external power that can act upon us.” ~Joel

Ps 23:4 (to ;)

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;

“So... if the Shepherd [Father] is with you within – is there something that could happen to you?” ~Al

THE DAILY LESSON – July 6, 2015

“The Master said to Pilate, ‘thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above’; and yet Pilate was the greatest temporal power of his day. The Master said to the storm, ‘Peace, be still,’ and it was still; to the palsied man, ‘Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house,’ and he did; to the man with the withered hand, ‘Stretch forth thine hand,’ and it was restored.

The teaching of the Master is a whole new revelation that the kingdom of God, the kingdom of power, is within - that all power is within. This is an entirely new concept, and therefore, the very first step that we have to take in spiritual living is to realize that the kingdom of God is established within us, and secondly, to recognize that all that we have feared, even when it has come to us under the guise of law – material or mental law – is not power.” ~Joel

7 If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

8 Herein is my Father glorified,

“Our Good comes to us as the glory and pleasure of the Fathers Love. Watch...” ~Al

THE DAILY LESSON – July 7, 2015

“Now Scripture becomes understanding and meaningful. God gave dominion to us. He did not give it to the stars, the weather, or the climate. God did not give power or dominion to the poisons, the infections, and the contagions in the world; God did not give power to bullets and bombs: God gave us dominion over all that exists between heaven and hell – up or down, in or out.

Those who live the spiritual life do not become, or permit themselves to become, victims of circumstances, conditions, or people outside their own being, nor need they be beneficiaries of any activity, person, or thing external to themselves. If, and in proportion as, they live in the realization, ‘Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine,’ they develop their unique capacities, whether these be spiritual capacities in architectural, musical, artistic, mechanical, or commercial fields.” ~Joel

II Tim 3:16,17

16 All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:

17 That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

THE DAILY LESSON – July 8, 2015

“So it is that gradually we learn that our own consciousness when it is imbued with Truth becomes the law of harmony unto our entire experience. ‘Whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. . .and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again’ – thus indicating that our experience unfolds from within our own being. It is an invisible law that that which the Father seeth in secret is shouted from the housetops.”
~Joel

Isa 35:1,2 (to :)

1 The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose.

2 It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing:

“Thank you Father. I am grateful for the miracle of Light and Love. Loving you,” al.within

THE DAILY LESSON – July 9, 2015

“If we have determined upon a life as a musician, artist, sculptor, or architect, we would discover, with this Truth, that we do not have to go outside and advertise to make ourselves known, but that automatically, invisibly, spiritually, we draw to ourselves those of our own state of consciousness, those whom we can bless and those who can bless us.

There is an invisible bond existing among all of us. There is an invisible bond between you and all those who represent the state of consciousness in which you find yourself. There is an invisible bond between me and all those who are attuned to the state of consciousness I represent, so that if I want to function as a spiritual teacher or practitioner, I need never announce it – I need only sit quietly in my own home and wait for the world to beat a pathway to my doorstep.” ~Joel

John 12:32

32 And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me.

“Quietly and patiently the Father Works... and I work.” ~AI

THE DAILY LESSON – July 10, 2015

“In living the life of the Spirit, there is no longer any blame for untoward events attached to persons or circumstances external to us, and those who becomes avenues or instruments for good to us are recognized as instruments of god. It is the divine principle using them to bring this good to us, and God, Itself, is the Source.” ~Joel

Matt 10:8 freely ye

8 ...freely ye have received, freely give.

“The Source is an Infinite Supply of Love. Let It use you today...” ~Al

THE DAILY LESSON – July 11, 2015

“Adam and Eve, the prodigal, the branch that is cut off from the vine – all of these became what they were because they had separated themselves from their Source. And remember that the discords and inharmonies, the sins, the diseases, and the poverties that we experience are due to our having been cut off from our Source, and the remedy lies in once more traveling back to the Father’s house.

This we do through the recognition that that which I am seeking, I am and have, that all that the Father has is mine, and that ‘man shall not live by bread alone’ – man shall not live by anything external – ‘but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.’ Again, it is something within our own being that is responsible for our destiny.” ~Joel

3 And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread.

4 But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

“We must be diligent, dedicated and committed to the straight and narrow path to be able to see through the many distractions as they are presented – that try to make us think we are somehow not the valid recipients of our True Inheritance. Our Father is Omnipotent, and all that the Father has is thine.” ~Al

“So it is that as we turn to the spiritual way of life we learn to depend less and less on persons, places, things, circumstances, and conditions; we learn to fear less every activity or form external to our being; we begin to abide in this Word and recognize that the kingdom of God is within us and that all that the Father has is ours. When it takes place, one day in our meditation we shall hear the words that will set us free, set us free from all outer discords and inharmonies, from all the trials and tribulations of this world. Then we, too, will be able to say with Jesus, ‘I have overcome the world,’ and we shall hear a word in our ears:

‘I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee. . .lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world.’ I am thy bread, thy wine, thy water, and thy meat.

I am thy life eternal; I am thy immortal being; I am even the resurrection, so that if thy body, thy home, and thy supply were destroyed – if all these were destroyed – I will raise them up. Just give Me a few days, and I in the midst of thee will raise them up.

I am closer to thee than breathing, nearer than hands and feet, and I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.’ If you mount up to heaven, I will be there; if, temporarily, you make your bed in hell, I will be there. If you walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will be there.

Do not fear – it is I! Do not fear – I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.’ Do not fear! I am the source of thy life; I am thy life; and I am closer to thee than breathing. I am in the midst of thee; I am in the center of thee.

Put your entire faith in Me – the I within your being. Do not fear this external world of thing or thought, for I in the midst of thee am the only power. I have given dominion to thee through this that is at the center of thy being.” ~Joel “Thank you Father.

Dear Friends, There is nothing that I could add to this beautiful meditation from Joel filled with Scripture and Love. It is a blessed experience of - The Word made flesh. May you follow with your experience...

Print it out and keep it close.” Loving you, ~Al

THE DAILY LESSON – July 13, 2015

“And so again we shall hear:

‘The Lord thy God in the midst of thee is mighty... He performeth the thing that is appointed for me... The Lord will perfect that which concerneth me.’

Always there is that Source within us with which we are at-one, and if good is to come into our experience, it must come through the Source, through our own consciousness. We must abide in this realization and truth:

I am one with the Father, and all that the Father has is mine. The presence of God in me is my safety and security. He that is within me is greater than he that is in the world; He that is within me will go before me to make the crooked places straight; He that is within me will go to prepare mansions for me.” ~Joel

II Cor 3:3-5

3 Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart.

4 And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward:

5 Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God;

“Father, I can of mine own self do nothing. I am tired of thinking and ready to Trust You with all of my Sufficiency. I will watch, listen and follow your direction... Speak Lord, thy servant heareth...” ~al.within

THE DAILY LESSON – July 14, 2015

“It is we who must consciously and specifically abide in this Word, day by day, until eventually we are abiding there every day, all the days. In other words, it becomes a matter of praying without ceasing, but without ever once asking God for anything. God is infinite intelligence and knows our needs; God is divine love and will never withhold anything; and therefore our prayers should never be an asking or telling God. Our prayers must always be an acknowledgement of God, an acknowledgement that He is closer to us than breathing, an acknowledgement that He is our eternal life, that He is the mind, intelligence, and wisdom of our being, that He is our bread and meat and wine.” ~Joel

I Thess 5:17,18

17 Pray without ceasing.

18 In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.

“If we maintain a constant attitude of Gratitude today by acknowledging God in and as every thing, we will never sense lack.

Thank you Father for Your Love...” ~Al

THE DAILY LESSON – July 15, 2015

“Let us not seek outside ourselves for what we shall eat or drink, or wherewithal we shall be clothed! Work – your Work is our destiny, because God is working out a destiny – a spiritual destiny – through us; and because our destiny is to be about our Father’s business, we shall always have work to do. We shall always be busy, and the closer the contact we make with our Father, the busier we shall be and the more hours we shall work; but we will work as a means of expressing ourselves, and our supply will be the reflex action of that expression. It may come directly from our work, or it may not; but it will not concern us how it comes because we shall be living in the assurance that it does not have to come from the outside; it does not have to come from our labors, since it is our inheritance.” ~Joel

Matt 6:34 (to .)

34 Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself.

Matt 6:33

33 But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

“When you know that you are Included in the Kingdom, you will want nothing but to constantly do His Work. Letting Love flow is as important as Breathing – IT moves our hands and feet.” ~Al

THE DAILY LESSON – July 16, 2015

“From the beginning, ‘I and my Father are one,’ and all that is necessary to demonstrate this truth is to live in the Word.” ~Joel

John 1:1-4

- 1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.
- 2 The same was in the beginning with God.
- 3 All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.
- 4 In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

THE DAILY LESSON – July 17, 2015

“The materialistic way of living places the emphasis on acquiring and achieving the things of this world. The spiritual way of living is a resting in the Word, and letting Love flow out – the love of God, the love of our neighbor, the love of truth, the love of life. Too much of our lives and too many of our prayers have been merely an attempt to increase the length of human life, the amount of human good, human supply, or human companionship, without ever giving a thought to what the kingdom of God is like. We call ourselves Christians, but we forget that the Master said, ‘My kingdom is not of this world.’ Therefore, it is futile to try to get more of what this world has.” ~Joel

Rom 12:2

2 And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

*“Thy Kingdom is come Within me Father. Take me, use me for Thy Infinite Way...
Your Grateful Son in Soul and Spirit, ~al.within”*

THE DAILY LESSON – July 18, 2015

“The Master said, ‘My peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you,’ but My peace... My peace. And what is this My peace, this God-peace, this Christ-peace? What is this kingdom of God like – not just the kingdom of a hundred percent increase in income, not just the kingdom of a heart that beats normally or muscles that are strong? What is My kingdom like, My kingdom, which is not of this world? And what is this My peace, this peace which is not the peace the world can give by making us healthy or wealthy or famous? Just what is My peace?

It is a peace that flows out from within. It is a life, a prosperity, and a joy that flow out from us, but do not flow into us. It cannot be found out here; and yet, when it appears to us, it appears as a healthier body, a more comfortable and beautiful home, and a more satisfying companionship. Those things, however, are not the goal – they are merely the added things. The goal is finding My kingdom, the kingdom of God, and resting in My peace and My kingdom which are already established within us.” ~Joel

Luke 12:29-32

29 And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind.

30 For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things.

31 But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you.

32 Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

“You are fully Included in the Oneness of All that IS. Try not to get distracted otherwise.” ~Al

THE DAILY LESSON – July 19, 2015

“This is the great mystery: We embody within ourselves the whole kingdom of God – infinity, not just a little bit of the kingdom, not just a small portion of God, but the allness of God. ‘he that seeth me seeth him that sent me.’ The allness of God is embodied within us, infinity itself – eternity, immortality – but that infinity is a mystery until we learn to pray, learn to meditate, and then hear a Voice within us saying, ‘I in the midst of you am God.’” ~Joel

John 12:42-46

42 Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue:

43 For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God. [politics has nothing to do with Truth and Love – it has to do with greed and power in this world]

44 Jesus cried and said, He that believeth on me, believeth not on me [the Instrument], but on him that sent me [Divine Principle - Omniscience].

45 And he that seeth me seeth him that sent me.

46 I am come a light [song of Illumination] into the world, that whosoever believeth on me [Christ Consciousness] should not abide in darkness.

“STOP...

Be still.

Trust.

Surrender all you've ever known...

Love God with all thy Heart and with all thy Soul.

Open an avenue of Awareness that you may be taught by God Himself and not from ink on paper or words repeated for generations by man whose breath is in his nostrils.

Omniscience will prove Itself.

Omnipotence will be Seen.

Omnipresence will be Felt...

I AM Unconditional Love and I AM All that IS.” ~AI
