

“THE DAILY LESSON”

is an activity of the study group found at: www.iwso.org
It is a progression of excerpts from tapes recorded by Joel, or from his books or writings.

It is created each day as an experience of Grace, with corroborating scripture and inspired comments from Al Denninger, to take into your meditation and live with throughout the day.

Student’s note: There are words that are capitalized throughout this work. These words are used as if it were a synonym for, or as an activity of God. Also, the portions that are italicized are spontaneous meditations.

The subject for our current study is the complete book
“Living the Infinite Way”
By Joel S Goldsmith

THE DAILY LESSON – November 16, 2015

“CHAPTER VII

GOD IS OMNIPRESENT

Does the fish soar to find the ocean,
The eagle plunge to find the air. . .
FRANCIS THOMPSON, ‘The Kingdom of God’

For in him we live, and move, and have our being. . . .
ACTS 17:28

One of the first things we have learned in The Infinite Way is, in quietness and in meditation, to give up the search for God in the realization that I and the Father are already one, just as we are taught to give up the search for supply in the realization that all that the Father has is mine.” ~Joel

“I can of mine own self, do nothing... I surrender Father... I am content to just rest in Your arms... Thank you Father. Thy will be done.” ~Al

THE DAILY LESSON – November 17, 2015

“A recent letter from a student stated that a neighbor had asked for help. And that her first thought had been, ‘Oh, if I could only know the presence of God,’ and immediately the Voice said, ‘Stop seeking; God is already here.’ Always that must be our first realization whenever we meditate or seek communion with God. Whenever we seek access to God, the very first thought we must entertain is that God already is where we are. We should not take the attitude that God is something afar off that we must seek.”
~Joel

Ps 23:1

1 The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

“God isn’t going to be our shepherd if we just do or say something, plead correctly or meditate aright – God already is. Rest now. Stop working at this – just Be Still.” ~Al

THE DAILY LESSON – November 18, 2015

“Any belief that we must do something, think something, pray something, or even be good or worthy in order to attain God, would separate us from our good experience. We all remember Tennyson’s lines: ‘Closer is He than breathing, and nearer than hands and feet,’ and so any sense of separation from God would intensify one’s problems. The poet’s words are true – God is closer than breathing – and it matters not whether we are praying, treating, communing, or being good or worthy. The omnipresence of God is a divine relationship that has existed from the beginning of time, and so our work is not to seek God or to try to find God. Our work is the quiet contemplation of God’s presence within us, and our prayer is the realization that there is no place where we can ever become separate and apart from God!

‘Whither shall I go from thy spirit? Or whither shall I flee from thy presence? If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there: if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there. . . .Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me.’ ~Joel “Speak to Him, thou, for He hears, and Spirit with Spirit can meet-Closer is He than breathing, and nearer than hands and feet.” ~Alfred Lord Tennyson

Ps 139:7-10

7 Whither shall I go from thy spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence?

8 If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there: if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there.

9 If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;

10 Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me.

THE DAILY LESSON – November 19, 2015

“It is possible to find ourselves in some sort of hell. It may be a hell of sin or disease, of lack or limitation, but we may be assured of this: We are having that experience only because we have accepted a sense of separation from God. The remedy does not lie in searching or seeking for God, but in the quiet contemplation of God as omnipresent right where we are. In the midst of this very sin or disease or lack, in the very midst of this seeming danger, God is present.” ~Joel

Luke 17:20,21

20 And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation:

21 Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is within you.

THE DAILY LESSON – November 20, 2015

“Many religious teachings, and even some metaphysical teachings, create the idea that because of sin, or some other circumstance, we have become separated from God. These teachings create the belief that if only we can find God, or some way of communicating with God, our problems can be met. None of this is true. There is only one truth, Omnipresence, and that truth has been revealed, not only for thousands of years before the Master, Christ Jesus, but it was so marvelously revealed by him, that we of the Western world have come to accept it as authority. But even while we accept it as authority in Scripture, we deny it in our own experience.” ~Joel

II Cor 3:5

5 Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God;

“I can of mine own self, do nothing. The Spirit within doeth the Work. I surrender... Thy will be done... ~Al

THE DAILY LESSON – November 21, 2015

“In the New Testament we read of a thief crucified for his offense, who was taken into paradise by the Master ‘this very day’; and we read of Mary Magdalene, whom the Master forgave and saved from those who would persecute and punish her. Then we have the example to which very few of us have given any serious thought, and that is, the Master’s saying that even the publicans and the harlots would enter heaven before the unbelievers. So, you see, there is nothing that can separate you from the love of God.” ~Joel

Rom 8:38,39 (to 4th ,)

38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God,

“No matter what we think or reason, we are always Included in the Omnipresence of God.” ~Al

THE DAILY LESSON – November 22, 2015

“Paul is very clear about this in the eighth chapter of Romans: ‘For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, no things present, nor things to come, nor height nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord’ – neither life, nor death, poverty, sin, nor failure, nothing in this world or the next, nothing can separate you from the love of God. There is no power, and there never has been a power that can separate you from the presence of God, the love of God, and the power of God. But just as it is possible to have a friend, a relative, or a parent, and neglect, disown, or walk away from him, thereby depriving ourselves of his companionship, association, and relationship, so we can entertain this thought of separation, thus depriving ourselves of the presence and power of God. Our friend or relative has not deserted us: We have turned our back upon him. God has never forsaken us, but we have turned from this realization of Omnipresence.” ~Joel

Rom 8:5-9

5 For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit.

6 For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.

7 Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

“Son, all that I have is thine. Be still and Watch My Good unfold in your Life...” ~Al

THE DAILY LESSON – November 23, 2015

“You will find this further exemplified as you study the subject of supply according to The Infinite Way teaching. Supply seems to be a very difficult problem for many people, but in the light of the New Testament teaching, it really should not be, because the Master has given numerous positive Christ-rules for the demonstration of supply. In the statement ‘Unto everyone that hath shall be given’ is the selfsame principle which has been our relationship with God from the beginning. Instead of seeking and praying to God, instead of fearing that perhaps God may not help, if you acknowledge the presence and the power, the omnipresence of God, even though you may find yourself in hell or in the very valley of the shadow of death, you will find yourself dwelling in the same Spirit as did David when he said, ‘I will fear no evil: for thou art with me.’ Remember this –it is the recognition and acknowledgement of the presence of God that brings God into tangible evidence, manifestation, and expression.” ~Joel

Matt 25:29 (to :)

29 For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance:

“Hath what?

The Acknowledgement of the Spirit within.” ~Al

THE DAILY LESSON – November 24, 2015

“Since God is omnipresent, all good is right where we are. To admit a lack is to deprive ourselves of the abundance that is already ours, and by admitting the lack we deprive ourselves even of the little that we may have at hand. To acknowledge that we already have all that the Father has, whether or not it is visible or immediately available at the moment, is to acknowledge the truth of ‘Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine,’ and that is enough to enable us immediately to start giving, spending, and serving, and in that release the flow of supply would begin.

“Father, I know that I can do nothing without You doing the Work. It is not by my might nor power – but by Your Will that the Work is done, and therefore, all Life Is. I am Included in Your Kingdom, and that means that Your entire Kingdom is Included within me... Your Love operates my Life.” ~al.within

“On every hand we see the demonstration of supply in nature. Take, for example, a coconut tree. One day the tree is without coconuts, but in a short time dozens have unfolded from within, and the tree is ready to push them out into service so that more can be produced. However, if one were to hang a hundred coconuts on a tree, that would not convince the tree that this was its supply, because that really is not supply. That would have nothing to do with the tree’s demonstration – it would be the demonstration of the one who had the coconuts and hung them there.

When we receive a check, we may think that that is a demonstration of supply. The check, however, is not our demonstration at all, but the demonstration of the one who sent it. He is the one who has demonstrated supply or he could not have given it. No matter how much we receive, we never demonstrate supply because our demonstration of supply is determined by how much we give, how much unfolds from within our own consciousness, and how much is released from within our own being. Many who call themselves Christians have accepted the materialistic view that supply is getting, whereas supply is giving. This is a spiritual law, and its violation accounts for the lack and limitation so many people experience.” ~Joel

3 Trust in the Lord, and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land [Kingdom of God], and verily thou shalt be fed.

THE DAILY LESSON – November 26, 2015

“The same principle will also illustrate the idea of companionship. Many feel that they have no companionship at all, or at least no proper or adequate companionship. That, of course, could not be true. It may be that at the moment they have no companions, but that can easily be righted the moment the nature of companionship is understood. Companionship is not found in a person; companionship is a quality of your own being. It is not something you can get; it is something you must give, and in giving it, there is a reflex action which results in receiving, or tangibly having. Even if one were alone on an uninhabited island, he could begin expressing companionship, perhaps with the birds or the trees, with the sun and the stars, or even with a sea shell. He could begin by feeding the birds and the fish; he could begin the giving process, and even from the remoteness of that barren island, safety, security, and rescue would be achieved, and it would be achieved through the correct idea of companionship, because the acknowledgment of companionship would be an acknowledgement of the presence of that which is not seen. Anyone under the belief that he has no companionship need only begin to express it, finding some way to release it from within his own being, and he will soon find himself adequately companioned.” ~Joel

Eccl 11:1 (to :)

1 Cast thy bread upon the waters:

“Love for the sake of Loving. Pour forth and you will see...” ~Al

THE DAILY LESSON – November 27, 2015

“What we entertain in consciousness is what we will find wherever we go. If we entertain lack and limitation, we will find lack and limitation, even in the midst of prosperity. During the years of depression, many suffered due to the belief that there was lack. Upon analyzing the situation, however, we found that Maine grew as many potatoes, Kansas produced as much wheat, the South as much cotton, and the hills abounded with as many cattle – but still the people were crying about lack. They were accepting in consciousness the belief of lack and then demonstrating it, and yet there was as much abundance all over the land as there had ever been.

Abundance is now, and abundance there will be, even in the days of the next so-called depression, but that next depression will not come nigh your dwelling place if only you can begin now with the realization that you will demonstrate what you have in consciousness, nothing more and nothing less. You will not demonstrate something separate and apart from your own being; you will not demonstrate something you are praying to have come to you. You must understand the omnipresence of God and all good wherever you are, and then begin to live out from it as if it were tangibly true. Begin to live as if you could spend that nickel, dime, or dollar in the realization that you are making room for the unfoldment of more from within. ~Joel

I Cor 2:9,10 (to :)

9 But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

10 But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit:

John 4:31-35

31 In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.

32 But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of.

33 Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat?

34 Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work.

35 Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest.

THE DAILY LESSON – November 28, 2015

“You begin with the realization that God is omnipresent. I know that to many there is no feeling, no awareness, or no sense of God’s presence. Many, many people in the human world are living it as if they were completely cut off from God, as if they were getting along wholly by their own efforts. Many are praying for God’s help, God’s love, or God’s presence, not knowing how to find it, because they are seeking it where it is not to be found – whereas it could be so easily realized by quiet, peaceful contemplation of the Master’s great truth, ‘The kingdom of God is within you.’” ~Joel

Ps 46:10 (to :)

10 Be still, and know that I am God:

Luke 17:21

21 Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is within you.

“Father, I can of mine own self do nothing - the Spirit within doeth the work. I surrender my reasoning for Your Way. I rest and wait... Speak Lord, Thy servant heareth... ...” ~al.within

THE DAILY LESSON – November 29, 2015

“The kingdom of God is to be found through meditation and prayer. There are two stages of meditation, each serving a distinct purpose. The normal or natural man lives entirely in the external – working and playing physically and mentally. His laws are legal, physical, and mental. His instruction and knowledge come mainly from persons or books. At some period of his life, however, an interest in God is awakened, and he finds himself pondering the significance of this statement, ‘The kingdom of God is within you.’ This, then, is his first meditation.

Can you not follow him as he first realizes that a kingdom is a realm in which a king lives, rules, governs, directs, and protects? Ah then, if the kingdom of God is within me – then God’s government, God’s law, order and wisdom must emanate from within me. He remembers now the Master’s words, ‘I can of mine own self do nothing. . . the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.’ This pondering, cogitating, and meditating reveal that God’s power also comes from within, and quietly the reminder comes, ‘My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me,’ and therefore, wisdom, guidance, and law must always unfold from within.” ~Joel

I Cor 2:14

14 But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

THE DAILY LESSON – November 30, 2015

“A whole new world has opened to this student – the realm of God within himself. As this meditation becomes a daily experience – two, three, and four times a day – an expansion of consciousness takes place, and as more and more of this infinite storehouse of wisdom, law, and power is revealed, he learns to depend less and less on outer forms of force, power, law, and knowledge.

Finally there dawns in consciousness the tremendous experience of understanding that since the kingdom of God is within, and the King, God, is ever within His realm, direct impartation of wisdom, direction, law, and power can come from within; and he remembers the words of the boy Samuel, ‘Speak, Lord; for thy servant heareth.’ Consciousness then becomes a state of awareness, attuned to the inner kingdom – the deep withinness – and gradually the student becomes consciously aware of inner guidance, direction, and wisdom. This is the culmination of the first stage of meditation wherein the student receives assurance, confidence, healing, and illumination from within his own being whenever he meditates.” ~Joel

[David’s dawning Assurance]

- 1 The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
- 2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.
- 3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name’s sake.
- 4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
- 5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
- 6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

“God already is my Source of all Good. I do not have to pray for or petition His Love. He goes before me to make the crooked paces straight, and to make the glass darkly as clear as day... I feel Your Presence Now... Thank you Father for this Assurance of Your Love.” ~al.within

THE DAILY LESSON – December 1, 2015

“The second stage of meditation quickly unfolds of itself. Here the student realizes an almost continuous attunement within, whether working, playing, or sleeping. Always the inner ear is alert. Always a state of receptivity exists, and at any moment, and finally at every moment, he lives under divine government, the reign of Spirit completely touching every facet of his existence. Now there is no more chance or accident, no more doubt or defeat, because the Soul has so enveloped his being that no other force or power can be found. At this point the student realizes, ‘I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me.’”
~Joel

Gal 2:20 nevertheless (to 2nd :)

20 ...nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me:

“There is an instant when the Impulse of the Spirit takes over – and actually Lives In, As and Through individual Being. We just go along for the ride as a Beholder...” ~AI

THE DAILY LESSON – December 2, 2015

“Knowing you are Christians, I would not be writing these things if there were not authority for them in the Master’s teachings. The Master never told his people anything that could not be verified in Hebrew Scripture, because he knew that it would be unacceptable to them, and they would not be able to understand it. All of Jesus’ teachings can be found in the Old Testament, repeated in the same, or similar, words in what we call the New Testament. The two great commandments, ‘Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind,’ and ‘Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself,’ which were the most important to the Master, were both taken from Hebrew Scripture. He also told his followers, ‘Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill.’

Nothing in the message of The Infinite Way is radical or extreme, since it has its roots in the Bible. There is nothing radical or startling in admitting that you need not seek God or pray for God to come to you or to help you, but that you need only to acknowledge the presence and power of the Father within. The kingdom of God is within you – the Father within me, He doeth the works – your Father and my Father. So, instead of seeking and searching and praying to God, go to a quiet, peaceful corner, give up searching and make the acknowledgement, ‘Here and now, the kingdom of God is within me. I have all the authority I shall ever need; the kingdom of God is within me, and my heavenly Father knoweth what things I have need of, and it is His good pleasure to give me the kingdom.’ In this understanding you do not have to demonstrate supply, companionship, home, or health, but go out and begin to spend – money, time, service, love, or forgiveness. Spending has more connotations than just buying a new hat, a bag of groceries, a car, or a house. We spend out of the abundance and infinity of our being when we give love to someone, when we give forgiveness or a bit of joy.” ~Joel

“I have come to fulfill- My work, the last 6 years has been to study specifically, and share the findings of every sentence of books and entire transcripts, not just the popular passages of Joel’s, to SHOW that his entire message is rooted in Scripture. To Heal and Teach whenever and wherever asked... I have come to Love without interruption...

You have come to fulfill- Thank you all for opening out a Way for letting the message find you. And so it is, you must Let Your light shine throughout the land and Acknowledge the Christ Consciousness that Dwells within you.

Fulfilment shows up As individual Being, Infinitely Expressed. Spend My Love... Help Me Live... ~Al

THE DAILY LESSON – December 3, 2015

“A great Mohammedan poet, Moslih Edden Saadi, wrote:
If of thy mortal good thou art bereft
And from thy slender store two loves alone are left
Sell one, and with the dole
Buy hyacinths to feed thy soul.

Does it seem strange that of two pennies one should be spent for something as seemingly useless as a flower? If we have only one dollar, let us buy our loaf of bread, but let us also spend some for a purpose that will enrich the Soul. Let us spend ourselves, for that is true spending – much more so than when we spend our possessions. Taking this from the standpoint of either God or supply, we find the same principle, and that principle is Omnipresence.” ~Joel

John 13:34,35 (to ,)

34 A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

35 By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples,

“There is no limit to Love. Go ahead and pour out – All that God has is thine.” ~Al

THE DAILY LESSON – December 4, 2015

“When we consider the subject of health, we find that we cannot pray for God to give us health. It really does not work, except here and there under some great emotional strain, so praying for health is not often a very successful or reliable practice. When we say that we heal by prayer, we mean something far different than paying for health, and what we mean is this: Since God is ever present where we are, health must be ever present, for all that the Father hath is right here where we are, and if God is health we have health. So again, our work is not attaining or praying for health, but the realization of the health that is already in the midst of us. ‘Son. . .all that I have is thine,’ and that would include health, strength, and peace.” ~Joel

Zech 4:6 Not

6 ...Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the Lord of hosts.

“I am Included in the Omnipresent Spirit of God. I am included in all of It, and all of It is Included in Me. Let us rest and bask in His Light...” ~Al

THE DAILY LESSON – December 5, 2015

“Where is the Christ? Where is the Master? Here – not on a crucifix! Now – not two thousand years ago, not dead and gone to heaven, not waiting somewhere to return again! No, no, no! The Christ is within you. The Christ is the activity of God in you; the Christ is the love of God in you; the Christ is the Spirit of God in you; the Christ is the truth of God in you – within your very own consciousness. It constitutes your divine sonship. So, if you want My peace, the Christ-peace, turn within and let it be given you from within. The Christ gives you My peace, surcease from the problems, the discords, and the inharmonies of the world, and it all comes from within your own being.” ~Joel

Luke 17:20,21

20 And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation:

21 Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is within you.

“Open an avenue of Awareness...

Rest without effort in the attitude of: ‘Speak Lord, thy servant heareth’... ..” ~Al

THE DAILY LESSON – December 6, 2015

“This brings us to a very, very important part of this entire subject. Since the kingdom, the allness of God, is within you, it becomes necessary that you share it, and here you will learn why it is more blessed to give than to receive. Again we turn to the fifteenth chapter of John, where we find those passages to the effect that you are the branch, I am the vine, and the Father is the husbandman. As you learn to look within yourself for supply, love, companionship, home, and health, you will find that there is an invisible Presence within you called the Son of God, or the Christ. It is your divine sonship, your divine relationship with God; It is your connecting link with God and from God. It draws unto you everything necessary for your fulfillment. Therefore, It says, ‘I am come. I am the vine – the vine, your divine sonship within, which has come that you might have life, and that you might have it more abundantly.’” ~Joel

John 15:7,8

7 If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

8 Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.

John 10:10 I am

10 ...I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

“And so it is, you are Included in My Love.” ~AI

THE DAILY LESSON – December 7, 2015

“Think what a muddle we have made of life by looking outside to friends and relatives, husbands and wives, communities, governments and nations, expecting something from them, when all this time the vine, / within you, your divine sonship, is there for the specific purpose of giving you life and life more abundantly.

In every case of seeming need, we learn to turn within to the Christ, the invisible Presence, realizing that Its function is to give us abundant life. It, drawing upon the Father, fulfills us with everything necessary. Just as a law of nature draws into the tree from the surrounding earth all that is necessary for the tree’s development, so does the Christ draw unto us, from the godhead, all that is necessary for our fulfillment.” ~Joel

Prov 3:7 (to :)

7 Be not wise in thine own eyes:

*“I surrender Father. Thy will be done, right here and now... Your Good is Realized on earth as it is in Heaven. I know that all that I have is Thine... I will look nowhere else.
~your grateful son*

THE DAILY LESSON – December 8, 2015

“That is the first, but the least part of our demonstration. Now comes the really important part when we bring this Christ-truth into vital aliveness, manifestation, and expression. We have been receiving this truth of our sonship, of the omnipresence of God and all good, and we are filled with it. Now the time has come when we must begin spending it, using it, and expressing it.

As we go out into the world, we give up our selfhood as a branch, and we accept ourselves as the vine. We recognize everyone we meet as a branch, all members of one family, the household of God, all one in Christ Jesus. In that moment, we begin to let this truth which fills us flow out into expression.” ~Joel

Matt 10:8 freely ye

8 ...freely ye have received, freely give.

THE DAILY LESSON – December 9, 2015

“When we behold people in any degree of humanhood, good or bad, rich or poor, sick or well, we immediately realize the spiritual truth of their nature, we realize that in them is this same invisible vine, this same Christ, and that Its function in them is that they might have life and that they might have it more abundantly. Should we see them in physical, financial, or moral lack, we silently know this truth: Right in the midst of them is the presence of God; in the midst of them is the kingdom of God; in the midst of them is the Christ; or divine Son, forever drawing unto them everything necessary for their enrichment, happiness, joy, peace, power, and dominion.” ~Joel

John 10:10 I am

10 ...I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

Matt 28:20 and

20 ...and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

“We are All Included in the One Presence, Living in and As His Grace and unlimited abundance - All Souls, as One.” ~Al

THE DAILY LESSON – December 10, 2015

“As we live in our homes, in our community, and in our nation, it becomes necessary that we be the vine – not openly or outwardly, but silently. That which is whispered in silence will be shouted from the housetops, only we will not do the shouting. It should be shouted forth, shown forth as demonstration. We will not be called upon to voice the truth, except when someone specifically asks for it. We will not go out to proselyte or to reform the world. We will not go out to teach the world the Christian truth, but we will go out as part of a spiritual underground. In secrecy and in privacy, we will realize that this truth which we have gleaned from Scripture is the truth about our neighbor and our enemy. Love your neighbor as yourself, love your enemy – pray for your enemy, for them that persecute you and hate you and despitefully use you. Silently and secretly within yourself voice this truth about your neighbor, be he friend or foe, far away or near. That voicing is the acknowledgement that you have truth, and because you are acknowledging that you have it and are willing to share it, more will be added unto you.”
~Joel

Luke 13:20,21

20 And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God?

21 It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

“Leavening adds vibrant and abundant Life to Bread [‘I Am’ the Bread]. It also multiplies Itself...

Be the leaven, silently and steadily Working in Truth. Love your neighbors by seeing them as they Are - joint heirs in the Kingdom of God. Raise them up to see their Good.”

THE DAILY LESSON – December 11, 2015

“Remember that as an individual you are a branch, and you have within you this divine sonship drawing unto you all that you need. In your relationship to the world, you now become the vine, and you are the one who is drawing truth from God and letting it flow from you to your neighbors, be they men, women, or children, animal, plant, or mineral. Speak this word of truth to your neighbor. Watch the miracle that takes place in your garden as you realize that it, too, is a branch of the same tree, and that this same Christ, this same spiritual sonship, is feeding every plant and every blade of grass.”
~Joel

John 15:5, 8

5 I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.

8 Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.

“I [the branch] am included in the Vine [Kingdom]. The Father Works, and I Work.” ~Al

THE DAILY LESSON – December 12, 2015

“Our Master tells us, ‘Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God,’ and so it is with our crops, our pets, and our cattle. They also live by every word of God, and we can bring forth greater productivity by silently voicing the truth that they are not fed by fertilizers or grass or oats alone, but by every word of Truth.

I have actually seen in demonstration a herd of milk cows increase their milk production by twenty-five percent simply through spiritual realization. It did not deplete the cows either, because it did not come from them, it came through them. They were not being fed by fodder alone, but by every Word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

Everyone who is familiar with horses knows that the Arabian horse is one of the best breeds, but very few know why this is true, and that even to this day, when a mare is in foal, a man reads to her from the Koran, the Mohammedan Bible. That is the reason for the superior quality of the Arabian horse. It is not that their food or climate is more favorable, but that they are being fed, not by bread alone, but by the word of Truth. The love and truth of spiritual wisdom that are conveyed from the Koran, which really means from the spiritual consciousness of the reader, feeds, quiets, and calms the mare, enabling her to be fully productive in health, in strength, and in well-being.

We have seen in our own experiences that a mother who devotes part of each day to reading the Bible and other spiritual wisdom while carrying her child, finds that she has an easier time; the child has an easier time; and there develops a strong and beautiful bond of love and understanding between them.” ~Joel

1 He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

“Dwell with Me [Be included in the Activity of God Consciousness]. Be Love Loving.”
~AI

THE DAILY LESSON – December 13, 2015

“Watch the miracle when you introduce the word of God into human consciousness, into child-consciousness, and even into animal-, vegetable-, and mineral-consciousness. Notice the marvelous results that follow. It is literally true that it is much better to have one loaf and a hyacinth than to have two loaves. It is much better to have one meal and a book of spiritual truth than to have two meals. Watch this, because it is a revelation that the kingdom of God is within you, and you cannot make it so: You can only come into the realization. No spiritual man or woman who has ever voiced or written what he or she has discovered has said other than that the kingdom of God is within, and that through meditation it is discovered there and brought into inner realization. No one has yet found God in a mountain or in a temple, or in a far-off country. No, no, no! Many have found or written or spoken about God, but God, Itself, has always been found within one’s very own being.” ~Joel

Luke 17:21

21 Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is within you.

“Be still... And witness His Love being Expressed. ~Al
