is an activity of the study group found at: www.iwso.org
It is a progression of excerpts from a transcript of a live class as it was recorded by Joel. It appears each day, together with the addition of corroborating scripture and inspired comments, to take into meditation and live with throughout your day.

Student’s note: There are words that are capitalized throughout this work. These words are used as if it were a synonym for, or as an activity of God. Also, the portions that are italicized are spontaneous meditations.

The subject of study for the month of March 2011 is:

“SCRIPTURAL PROMISES EXPLAINED” by Joel S Goldsmith

“Good morning. (Class responds). This letter brings up a very interesting question. It is a little off the point of what we have been doing the last few days, but it might be well to cover it just the same. And the question is this: We read in scripture, ‘I will never leave thee nor forsake thee. If you have seen me you have seen the Father.’ And then we have statements like, ‘My God, my God. Why hast thou forsaken me?’ And it would appear that all through scripture you have divine promises and then, on the other hand, you have some of these same prophets, sages, seers, expressing fear, doubt, discouragement, wonder.” ~Joel

Prov 3:5 and,6

5... and lean not unto thine own understanding.

6 In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

“SCRIPTURAL PROMISES EXPLAINED” by Joel S Goldsmith

“Now to begin with, this statement supposedly uttered by the Master on the crucifix: ‘My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?’ may have been uttered, may not have been. If you can visualize that scene, here is a man suspended high above the heads of those around him, and already crucified, undoubtedly in a weakened state. It really doesn’t seem likely that those down there on the ground actually heard the words that he uttered. It doesn’t seem that in that state he could have shouted very loudly, ‘oh God, oh God, why hast thou forsaken me.’ And so there is a very serious doubt that comes into my mind as to whether or not he ever spoke such words since he knew the nature of his demonstration. If he did, if those were his words, they would represent a momentary fear, a momentary lapse due to the actual fact of the crucifixion.

It may well have been that in his mind was some thought of a miraculous deliverance from the experience and then finding it necessary to go through it, there could have been that momentary sense of fear or doubt. On the other hand, it could also have been a mistranslation of what was uttered.’ He could very well have said something that sounded like that, and later was translated like that.

Now. The main point is not whether or not he stated it, but rather the fact that probably every religious leader all through the ages has, at times, experienced a doubt, a fear, a wonder, a discouragement.” ~Joel

Isa 41:10

10 ¶ Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.

(I don't see a time constraint or condition on that promise to Isaiah/us. Just an omnipresent promise... Any temporary doubts or fears are of our own doing. ~Al)

THE DAILY LESSON – March 3, 2011
From the 1955 Kailua Study Group Series –
“SCRIPTURAL PROMISES EXPLAINED” by Joel S Goldsmith

“Let us go first of all to the scriptural promises in the Bible:

- ‘I will never leave you nor forsake you.’
- ‘If you go through the waters, I will be with you.’
- ‘The flames will not burn.’
- ‘God in the midst of thee is mighty.’

Whenever you come in scripture to a spiritual promise, a divine promise of safety, security, peace, health, wholeness, harmony, remember that you are not listening to a man making a promise or delivering a message. It is the Christ Itself, the Spirit of God in man, who voices that. It is the Christ Itself – not a man – it's not a man reporting what God said. It is the voice of Christ Itself saying, ‘I will never leave thee nor forsake thee.’

It is when an individual is attuned to God, to the Spirit, that these impartations come. You see, that is one of the points that I have been trying to make in the message of The Infinite Way that just because the Bible has these spiritual promises, don't think that they apply to you or me. They do not apply to human beings. No spiritual promise applies to a human being or human beings would all be saved. They apply to you and me when we are in our spiritual oneness with God, and then we are no longer human beings.

Now does he give us power to become the sons of God! 'If so be the Spirit of God dwell in you, then are ye children of God.' Do you see that?" ~Joel

II Tim 3:16

16 All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:

Rom 8:9

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

(I am the instrument; singing in tune, in harmony, in peace, within you... As always... ~Al)

THE DAILY LESSON – March 4, 2011
From the 1955 Kailua Study Group Series –
“SCRIPTURAL PROMISES EXPLAINED” by Joel S Goldsmith

“When you make your contact – that is what the whole message of The Infinite Way is about – teaching us to make our contact. It isn't trying to give us a new religion. It isn't trying to give us a new message from some human being about something. It isn't merely to invent a new way of healing the sick people and feeding the hungry. The whole import of the message of The Infinite Way is through writings, through speech, lessons, lectures, classes, recordings, to lift the individual to a state of spiritual apprehension wherein and whereby they too become the sons of God.

Do you see what that point is? When you then have a divine intuition, when you then have an impartation from within, you're not a human being. You are then a child of God. You are consciously one with the Father. Otherwise, you are 'man, whose breath is in his nostril and wherein is he to be accounted of?' Do you see?" ~Joel

14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

15 For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

16 The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God:

17 And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

(And in turn, lift the next generation to realize their birthright. ~Al)

THE DAILY LESSON – March 5, 2011
From the 1955 Kailua Study Group Series –
“SCRIPTURAL PROMISES EXPLAINED” by Joel S Goldsmith

“Who is going to worry about mortal man? Not even God bothers to save mortal man. God lets them rot away on battle fields, or in prison dungeons, or wherever they find themselves. It is only the Son of God, the spiritual image and likeness which is held in the bosom of the Father, and in order to achieve that, you have to make that return journey of the prodigal son. You have to get up from that banquet with the swine, leave behind all of those thoughts and people and doings of that swinish world and return to the Father, abandoning even mother and father and sister and brother for my name sake.

One has to abandon all their previous conceptions of life. Not only their previous conceptions of sin, but their previous conceptions of what constitutes good. In other words, we have wonderful benevolences on the human plane. We have wonderful things being done by doctors, nurses, judges. We have wonderful things being done by human beings on the human plane. That has nothing to do with ‘dying daily’ to those things and being ‘reborn of the Spirit.’” ~Joel

Rom 8:38,39 (to 4th ,)

38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God,

(There we have it - in Scripture – and clear as a bell... We cannot be separate from the Love of God. Life, death, power, benevolence, even time & space are all temporary human concepts and all these things are subject to change depending on our perception. God, Spirit, Grace & Love are all unconditional, infinite.....absolute. ~Al)

THE DAILY LESSON – March 6, 2011
From the 1955 Kailua Study Group Series –
“SCRIPTURAL PROMISES EXPLAINED” by Joel S Goldsmith

“Now, every divine promise in scripture is the Christ uttering Itself to whoever heard It, and whoever heard It received not only the benefit for himself but for all those who were in his charge. In other words, when the Hebrew prophets had the Israelites under them – whether it was from Egypt to the Red Sea, whether it were those in the rebuilding of the temples, whether it were those in moving from country to country in the Holy Land – whoever the divinely inspired leader was, they were given the care of their people, the disciplining of them and the care of them. And because they were still ‘man, whose breath is in his nostril,’ because they were still trying every once in awhile to break away and return to Baal, and to mingle with the heathen, they had to be rebuked, they had to be punished. They had to be disciplined because they were going through the preliminary stages of ‘initia-hood.’

And all of us, when we are in this stage of initiation, that is when we are in this stage of passing from humanhood to the realization of our divinity, we are all punished. We are all admonished. We are all given Ten Commandments. We are all given Jeremiah’s prophecies of disaster if we do not change our ways. We are all told, ‘turn ye and live. God has no pleasure in your dying,’ which means you’re going to die, just as sure as fate unless you turn from these human ways.

And so it is, try to understand that these promises that are in scripture apply to us not because of our voicing them or repeating them as affirmations, they apply to us in proportion as we make our conscious contact within and receive them as impartations within.” ~Joel

6 For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.

(Our goal is to leave the mind of man behind and realize, consciously feel, commune with the Spirit of Life within. ~Al)

THE DAILY LESSON – March 7, 2011
From the 1955 Kailua Study Group Series –
“SCRIPTURAL PROMISES EXPLAINED” by Joel S Goldsmith

“Now all of these other statements, ‘why hast thou forsaken me?’ and the many others that are in scripture, of doubt, and fear, and discouragement, those are the statements of you and me while we are on the path of not having fully attained. And so it is that always there are going to be questions in our mind whether we are doing the right thing in accord with God’s plan. Our motive we know is right. Our instinct is right. We want to do right. Our desires are right, but we still are not certain ‘is this God’s plan?’

Should we be doing this which we are doing today or, if we were hearing God correctly, would there be something else for us to be doing at this very moment? Always that comes up, and more especially does it come up in the experience of those who are practitioners or teachers or leaders, who are responsible for the spiritual unfoldment of those who have entrusted themselves to the teacher or teaching. Because then one is not merely responsible for one’s own demonstration, but for those who he has, or she, has taken to guide along the path.” ~Joel

Rom 8:28

28 And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.

(Always ask within, “What would Love do?” You won’t do it wrong... ~Al)

THE DAILY LESSON – March 8, 2011
From the 1955 Kailua Study Group Series –
“SCRIPTURAL PROMISES EXPLAINED” by Joel S Goldsmith

“In other words, it would have been an easy thing for Moses to fail or to succeed since he would have only had his experience to consider if he, alone, were involved. But here he had these hoards of Hebrews, these hoards of people who were in slavery whom he had been directed to lead into freedom. And what happened? Why, right while under his own guidance over and over they said, ‘Oh why did you do this to us? Why didn’t you leave us back there in Egypt? We were slaves, but at least we had food in our stomach and a place to sleep.’

And I have a recent experience that will show you that ‘man, whose breath is in his nostril’ will always prefer to be a slave if someone will just assure him a couple of meals a day and a place to sleep. And it doesn’t have to be a good place or good food. Just so long as he doesn’t have the personal responsibility of going out and earning it or competing for it, he’s perfectly willing to sign away his vote to whoever will provide that little meager living. That’s human nature.

Now, here were these Hebrews pleading to go back into slavery so they could be fed, and housed and clothed. And here is a leader knowing right well he’s got a hard path to give them. They may have to go without food, without housing. They may have to go through many, many dangers, but he knows that if they stick by they will be led into their ultimate freedom in slavery, and so he’s got to fight the very people whom he’s trying to bless.

Well, now the experience of Moses has been repeated by Elijah, by Isaiah, by Jesus, by John, by Paul. All of those people, all of those leaders had to fight the very people they were trying to bless. Why? Because those who they were trying to bless were going to be called upon for sacrifices which they, themselves, didn't want to make. They wanted their way. They not only wanted their way, but they wanted it right now, and they were perfectly willing at every stage of history to forego a future good for a present half-good." ~Joel

John 4:5-14

5 Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph.

6 Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well: and it was about the sixth hour.

7 There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink.

8 (For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.)

9 Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? for the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans.

10 Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water.

11 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?

12 Art thou greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle?

13 Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again:

14 But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.

(Our struggling in this-world for comforts will only temporarily satisfy us but it will never quench our greatest thirst. Most of us will experience lack until we find our Teacher...or our Teacher finds us... The Samaritan woman recognizes the experience of the Word made flesh and willingly opens a way for the Master to fill her consciousness with Living waters. ~Al)

“SCRIPTURAL PROMISES EXPLAINED” by Joel S Goldsmith

“Well do you wonder that it must have come to Moses, to Elijah, to Isaiah, to all of the Hebrew prophets, to Jesus, to Paul, to Peter, to John, to wonder if it’s worthwhile, to wonder whether or not they really are interpreting God’s message correctly since they seem to be the only ones who have faith in it? Yes, because no one on earth has ever attained the full Christhood until after the crucifixion. There has remained in every religious leader some trace of humanhood, and that expressed itself at some time or other as doubt, fear, discouragement.

Well now knowing ourselves as we do, we won’t be very harsh with them, but we will acknowledge this: that every time we are touched with a doubt, a fear, a hesitation, a sense of discouragement, let us acknowledge that what is operating in our consciousness at that time is a sense of separation from God. It is not a separation from God because we can no more be separated from God than this ring can be separated from gold. Why? Because gold is this ring, gold constitutes this ring and there is no possible way to remove the gold and still have a ring because there is no gold and a ring. There is a gold ring.

So it is with us. We cannot be separated from God. Why? Because there is no ‘we’. There is no such thing actually in all the world as you or me. God being infinite, God is all there is. God constitutes you and me. God constitutes our being. God constitutes our life, mind, soul and being just as much as gold constitutes this ring. Gold is the substance, ring is the form. God is the substance, we, individually, are the form as which God appears.” ~Joel

Matt 14:22-31

22 ¶ And straightway Jesus constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away.

23 And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: and when the evening was come, he was there alone.

24 But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary.

25 And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea.

26 And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit; and they cried out for fear.

27 But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid.

28 And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water.

29 And he said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus.

30 But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me.

31 And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?

(Peter walked on the water one minute and then sank the next. Why? His fear, his mind, his senses distracted him and judged it impossible... He apparently slipped back into the this-world belief of two-ness – a separate God/Father/Teacher and a man. So, when he believed himself separate from the One Self he asked for help from his teacher to lift him up. Did you notice that the Christ never hesitated, never doubted? He just said, “Come.”

Isn't it silly, how we can think we are alone?... ~Al)

“SCRIPTURAL PROMISES EXPLAINED” by Joel S Goldsmith

“There can be no separation between us and God. God is the essence of our being, the life, soul, mind, Spirit, the law, the continuity, the activity – God is the all and all of our individual being whether we be saint or sinner. But the degree of our sainthood is totally dependent upon the degree of our conscious realization of that oneness. The degree of our sinner-capacity is the degree of the sense of separation that is set up within us. We can entertain a sense of separation from God. As a matter of fact, that is all there is to humanhood.” ~Joel

Rom 8:35

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

(It is possible, actually quite likely to entertain a belief of separation or duality, especially in the face of disharmony or lack. But the belief is a fabrication, a fear tactic trained into us by human sin, which wants to limit us in an attempt to have a power over us. This is not something to overcome or fight against, or correct. It is something to see through and thereby ignore. You know there can't be a power over God. It is impossible to be beyond of His Love. ~Al)

THE DAILY LESSON – March 11, 2011
From the 1955 Kailua Study Group Series –
“SCRIPTURAL PROMISES EXPLAINED” by Joel S Goldsmith

“We are not human beings, as we seem to be. We are pure spiritual being, but that which is called the prodigal's experience, or that which is called the fall of man – the Adam and Eve experience – all of these things do not constitute separate entities. Remember that Adam and Eve before the fall is also Adam and Eve after the fall. It is not that there are two separate beings, a human being and a spiritual being; it is only that a human being is entertaining a sense of separation from God and the moment that sense of separation begins to disappear, Christhood or divine sonship begins to appear. Is that clear?

The whole thing takes place within our self. Again we go back to that same thing of ‘let’s not think anything about God’ in this situation, God is. God already is. All of this has nothing to do with God. This has to do with us. Do we or do we not entertain a sense of separation from God? Do we or do we not begin to achieve the realization of our spiritual sonship? The whole thing has to do with us.” ~Joel

I John 3:1,2

1 Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not.

2 Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is.

(We have a Divine inheritance, it's up to us to accept it or not... ~Al)

THE DAILY LESSON – March 12, 2011
From the 1955 Kailua Study Group Series –
“SCRIPTURAL PROMISES EXPLAINED” by Joel S Goldsmith

“Now. God plays this part in our demonstration. Were it not for the Grace of God, we couldn't even be reaching out toward the realization of divine sonship. In other words, let no one ever take credit for being on the spiritual path because they didn't bring themselves there. No human being ever has and no human being ever will. It is the nature of a human being to love the company of swine. It is the nature of a human being to love degradation, separation from good, self-indulgence, and so forth and so on. That is the nature of that which has become separate and apart in sense from God, and so that will never, never seek God.

But in the experience of every person, past, present and future, there comes a certain moment when they are penetrated by a ray of God, when a touch of God breaks through into their consciousness not because of them – in spite of them. And from the moment that that ray touches us, the end is inevitable. We are going to find our way right to the throne of God.

With some of us, the way is a long one and a difficult one because of the many facets of humanhood which we have built up and which we cannot let go of. We do not find it easy to let go of many of the qualities that, if we could let go of, would elevate us into heaven, and I don't mean only let go of all the evil qualities. I mean some of those good ones, too, which are positive deterrents to our spiritual progress.” ~Joel

Acts 9:1-22

1 And Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest,

2 And desired of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he found any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem.

3 And as he journeyed, he came near Damascus: and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven:

4 And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

6 And he trembling and astonished said, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.

7 And the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man.

8 And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.

9 And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink.

10 ¶ And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul, of Tarsus: for, behold, he prayeth,

12 And hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem:

14 And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that call on thy name.

15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel:

16 For I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake.

17 And Ananias went his way, and entered into the house; and putting his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and be filled with the Holy Ghost.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized.

19 And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Damascus.

20 And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God.

21 But all that heard him were amazed, and said; Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ.

(And we shall all be changed... ~Al)

“SCRIPTURAL PROMISES EXPLAINED” by Joel S Goldsmith

“Now, in proportion as this ray of light continues to penetrate us, it pushes us, it leads us, it makes us stumble. And, because of this, we have periods of gradual growth toward spiritual consciousness and then, all of a sudden, we get a wallop that sets us back about ten degrees, and we have to pick ourselves and begin all over again. That happens to everybody on this path who, like ourselves, yield reluctantly to the spiritual impulse.

There are a few gifted individuals who, by previous experience (I mean before this present experience on earth), have been so wonderfully prepared that their way seems to be much easier than ours. They catch a spiritual light and they just progress on upward like Eve mounting up to heaven – not our ancient friend, Eve, our little Eva climbing the golden stairs.

In that purity of consciousness, a childlike consciousness, which many adults have who have brought it over with them from their previous developments, the ascent into spiritual consciousness is a beautiful one, a gradual one, harmonious one and beset with very, very few problems, and even those few not of their own making but having to do mostly with their families, friends, and that which they’ve picked up on the journey. But for most people, the path is ups and downs, ups and downs and usually with the realization that at the end of a year or two, of every year or two, ‘well I am a trace ahead of where I was a year or two ago.’

Now just to conclude this point, watch now that you do not believe that these divine promises are meant for human beings walking around living a purely human life. These divine promises are meant for you, individually, in proportion as you make the contact and receive those within your own being. If it flashes into your mind, 'thou art my beloved in whom I am well pleased,' that is a divine promise and you can bank on that. That's better than a note from the Bank of England. That's really worthwhile when you receive that impartation within you. 'It will never leave you nor forsake you,' and it will always bring you back to the throne of God." ~Joel

11 And there came a voice from heaven, saying, Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

“Once you hear in your ear, ‘Fear thou not for I am with thee,’ that’s all you ever need. That is the absolute assurance, as David’s was, in God’s Grace. You have attained God’s Grace when you have heard the ‘still small voice within you’ – whether you have heard it as a voice or felt it as an impulse, or just achieved it as an awareness, regardless of how it comes, you have attained God’s Grace. Then you can say, ‘oh well He will lead me beside the still waters even if I have to cross a few rough ones to get there. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures even if I walk through a few barren ones before I arrive there.’ But the point is not whether or not we have complete, what we think of as, happiness or peace today.

As a rule, that’s just some namby-pamby idea of what constitutes happiness or peace. What counts is whether or not we are preparing ourselves by study, by meditation, by mingling with those on the spiritual path, whether or not we are preparing ourselves for the hearing of that ‘still small voice,’ for the actual experience of the Christ. Don’t you see that once you achieve it, you are absolutely free from churches, from organizations, from government support and from all of these bonds that the human mind wants to place on itself?” ~Joel

II Cor 3:15-17 (to liberty)

15 But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the veil is upon their heart.

16 Nevertheless when it shall turn to the Lord, the veil shall be taken away.

17 Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty

“We are in bondage to no man, to no organization, to no government, to no form of economy once we have achieved this contact with our inner being, with our inner selfhood, with our Christhood. We are then free in Christ and we can then say, ‘Christ liveth my life.’

It makes no difference whether we have capitalism or communism. It makes no difference whether we have depression or boom. It makes no difference whether we have floods or no floods:

‘The Christ liveth my life.’ ‘It leadeth me beside the still waters.’ ‘It maketh me to lie down in green pastures.’ The Christ, ‘a thousand may fall at my left hand and ten thousand at my right hand, still it will not come nigh me’ because I have made that contact. I am ‘dying daily.’ I am being reborn of the Spirit. I am being guided and directed, fed, maintained, sustained, healed, saved by this inner light, this inner illumination.

But you see the secret is the contact.” ~Joel

Ps 23:4 (to ;)

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;

I Cor 2:9-12

9 But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

10 But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

(Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven... Amen. ~Al)

THE DAILY LESSON – March 16, 2011
From the 1955 Kailua Study Group Series –
“SCRIPTURAL PROMISES EXPLAINED” by Joel S Goldsmith

“Now even after having achieved it, do not be too hurt if once in awhile a sense of fear, doubt or discouragement comes up because, upon investigation, you will usually find that that hasn’t come with anything that has to do with your personal demonstration except inasmuch as your personal demonstration is affected by those around you. It will probably be when these fears, and doubts and hesitations come that it will be because of some friend, or relative or patient, or student, or somebody other than yourself, and it is their demonstration that you are more concerned about than your own.

Nobody has ever achieved spiritual leadership that had any concern for their own demonstration. No one has ever achieved a spiritual leadership while it made any difference to them whether they ate or didn’t eat, or whether they slept in a barn or slept in a house, or whether they stayed up all night or stayed up all day, or whether they did this or that. As long as there was a personal concern or the need for personal demonstration, they could never have achieved spiritual leadership. And so it is that all of those who have attained spiritual leadership and still had concern, had it not for their own well being. They didn’t care whether they were crucified, whether they were thrown to the lions, burned at the stake because they had already visioned through to the life eternal so their particular fate meant nothing to them.

They were flirting with death. Everyone does who becomes a spiritual leader – flirts with death every minute that they're on their way and flirts with disgrace because the human mind is such that it would love nothing better than to throw headlines in the newspaper: 'pastor, minister, priest, rabbi somebody else is in disgrace.' That makes for great news and more especially if they are an unorthodox saint or sage or seer who is fighting entrenched religious teachings. More especially are they glorified on the front pages when they make a mistake, and ridiculed and, where possible, imprisoned." ~Joel

10 Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

(All of us can and will make human mistakes, or be tempted to, or stumble a little and believe the concepts of this-world to be real for a moment. The trick is to catch ourselves - STOP - lift ourselves up and recognize our true identity as spiritual children of God as quickly as possible. Or, lovingly lift up our neighbor and support them until they can get their equilibrium back. Knowing all the time that we can, of our own self, do nothing... We must unconditionally know that ALL works are done by the Father. So...Trust the Father to take every step you make. It's not our life to live, It is His. Spirit will not make a mistake, have judgment or ridicule, It can only Love... Love you, Al)

THE DAILY LESSON – March 17, 2011
From the 1955 Kailua Study Group Series –
“SCRIPTURAL PROMISES EXPLAINED” by Joel S Goldsmith

“So, never think for a moment that a person can achieve any sense of spiritual leadership while they care for their own particular fate. And that’s not a defiance; that’s just a realization that ‘no matter what happens to me in the outer, ‘I and the Father are already one,’ and do what you want with this body. I and the Father still are one.’

Now. You, yourself, find very quickly that your own particular fate is not of too much importance to you. You are not too concerned whether you are eating the best cuts or the least of the cuts. You are not concerned with your personal health or well-being but rather with those who come in range of your thought or consciousness or who look to you for guidance. And so it will be as you study scripture, please remember that there is no disgrace in coming to those moments of fears or doubts, but get them over with in a hurry and get back on the beam because inwardly you do know this: ‘I and the Father are one.’ There is no such thing as gold and a ring. There is only gold formed as a ring. There is no such thing as God and man. There is only God manifest and expressed as your individual being and mine. There is only God appearing on earth.

The mystery of godliness we read the other day is God manifest in flesh. That’s the mystery of godliness: God manifest in flesh. God appearing as individual being, so there is no separation between God and Its own selfhood individually formed, but we can set up a sense of separation and that is what we are in this work of breaking down. (Fine. Let’s stop a moment.)” ~Joel

(Take a look at the whole of John Chapter 16)

John 16:7

7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you.

(Divine Love knows what it is doing... Be patient. Be diligent. Be honest with yourself. You can't do it wrong. Be still and trust the Word manifest in You. ~Al)

THE DAILY LESSON – March 18, 2011
From the 1955 Kailua Study Group Series –
“SCRIPTURAL PROMISES EXPLAINED” by Joel S Goldsmith

“You will eventually hear Tape Number 4¹ of this Kailua series and you will notice that on the first side we have the entire subject of body, which of course, includes the subject of the body of the universe, the physical, so-called physical universe. And you will see that the reason it is there is so that we do not have either an ignorance of truth or a blind faith, but that we really do understand that God has given us a body, and that that body is this body, and that we will never any more be separated from this body than the ring will be separated from gold. And the reason is that this body is the product of my consciousness, and this body is my consciousness made manifest, expressed. And the only way this body can improve is for my consciousness of truth to improve or be enlarged until I come to the actual place where there is no more ‘my consciousness,’ and ‘God’s consciousness,’ but where God’s consciousness has become solely and completely my consciousness.

Then of course the body will show forth that which the Master’s body showed forth after the Ascension or at the time of the Ascension, pure spiritual being. Until the time that our consciousness is divested of all human theories and beliefs, our body will continue to show forth partly good and partly evil, partly spiritual and partly material.” ~Joel

¹ Tape 113, side one, ‘Understanding Body,’ chapter 7 (Month 7 or January 2011 of this study)

John 8:19

19 Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, Ye neither know me, nor my Father: if ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.

(Spiritual discernment is not possible, with this-worlds limited sense-mind. Jesus is saying, to the Pharisees, that there is only One body, One Consciousness, One Life, One Love, One Mind, One Soul, One Truth, One Principal, One activity - and It is I. Or, he could have just as well said, "I am that I am". ~Al)

THE DAILY LESSON – March 19, 2011
From the 1955 Kailua Study Group Series –
"SCRIPTURAL PROMISES EXPLAINED" by Joel S Goldsmith

"Now. As we are in the work of 'dying daily,' that daily dying consists of the falling away of these human or material or mortal beliefs, and in proportion as they disappear, our consciousness is that much more the clear transparency of God-Consciousness, Christ-Consciousness. Therefore, our bodies, our business, our homes take on healthier, happier, more prosperous appearances. And so it is that this body goes with us wherever we go, and it improves in appearance in proportion as our spiritual discernment increases.

This body will go with us even should we drop dead this instant. And if that should happen, the only thing that will be left in this chair is not my body, but the world's concept of my body which you are entertaining. My body will go with me." ~Joel

18 My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth.

19 And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him.

(There is a whole lot of difference between human belief or faith and a real assurance in our consciousness of the Truth. Can we completely trust a world belief or law? No, because the world is full of variables and opposites - and any law that man can think up can have loopholes. We will never willingly surrender our ego as long as we have even the slightest doubt...

But, if we, through Spiritual discernment, know the Truth, and actually feel It within, we can and will have the assurance and conviction to drop the fear that paralyzes us from trusting God to unconditionally live our lives for us. As the fear falls away the avenue of Awareness opens up. ~Al)

THE DAILY LESSON – March 20, 2011
From the 1955 Kailua Study Group Series –
“SCRIPTURAL PROMISES EXPLAINED” by Joel S Goldsmith

“Your concept of my body will remain with you, and it acts in this wise. Supposing at this minute we were to receive a cable that our friend John Jones had died in Africa. Now, immediately the first thing would come to us is, ‘that’s too bad,’ or ‘well why did that happen?’ or some such thought would come into our mind. And then the next thought, of course, would be (and this wouldn’t be a conscious one) but unconsciously, we’d go through the whole thing of the burial or cremation. We’d remember at some time or other all that was happening to John Jones’ body between the time that he died and the time we had the cable, or perhaps it would by that time be the funeral, and we would be mentally at the graveside.

And then, a week later, we get another cable that it was John Jones who died, but not our John Jones, another John Jones because our John Jones is having a vacation on the lakes in Italy. Ah, ah now, now what happened to that corpse that we visualized? Now what happened to that funeral or that cremation? What happened to that whole experience? It never was happening to our John Jones at all – never. It was happening to us about our John Jones. It was a whole mental experience taking place within us about our John Jones, and our John Jones wasn’t even there and his body wasn’t there. No part of him was there. It had nothing at all to do with him.

So it is with us. At this moment, you sit here and you entertain a mental or a universal mental concept of me and of my body, and its appearance. And should you be presented with an appearance of its death, or my death, immediately would come up the thought of ‘oh gee,’ ‘oh that’s too bad,’ ‘oh why did that have to happen?’ oh something or other which would be an acknowledgement of something happening. And then, of course, would come the following days with whatever would take place, and someday it would surprise you to find out that the only place that took place was within your mental activity. That it wasn’t happening to me at all, that I wasn’t even there because I got up from the chair and went on about my business wherever I had been called to. Evidently I had received a call to go somewhere and be about my Father’s business, and I went. I’m not even aware of the fact any more than our John Jones was that you’re sitting around mourning him and picturing his body in the grave – he’s enjoying himself on the lakes.” ~Joel

1 There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.

3 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:

4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit.

6 For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.

(Being carnally minded is accepting anything other than our true Spiritual identity. ~Al)

THE DAILY LESSON – March 21, 2011
From the 1955 Kailua Study Group Series –
“SCRIPTURAL PROMISES EXPLAINED” by Joel S Goldsmith

“So it would be that I would not have any awareness, would not necessarily have any awareness, of what was going on in your mind. I’d be so busy on about my business. On the other hand, I have witnessed where those who were being buried were actually standing at the grave knowing what we were seeing, and shaking their heads and saying, ‘no, it isn’t happening to me.’ And they were standing there in the same body that we knew them in, with the same clothing on that we had been accustomed to seeing them.

So the day will come because of that, that you will know that consciousness and body are inseparable. Once you know that to the fullest degree, death will not even be a possibility to you from a human standpoint. Then there will only be a transition.

Now it becomes necessary to know that consciousness and body are one – just like gold and ring are one. Ring is the body, but gold is the substance. And so it is. Consciousness is the substance, and body is its form and they are inseparable and indivisible and their substance is one. ‘I and the Father are one.’ And as you know that, you will then know that ‘the place whereon thou standest is holy ground,’ that wherever you go, you go ‘clad in the liberty of the Christ,’ never in danger.” ~Joel

I Cor 15:51 We

51 ...We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed,

(The “transition” is a dawning, or ascension, of consciousness. We transcend from sleeping in the world of material concepts to a Spiritual awareness of our true Identity where we are included in Omnipresence, not separate from it. ~Al)

THE DAILY LESSON – March 22, 2011
From the 1955 Kailua Study Group Series –
“SCRIPTURAL PROMISES EXPLAINED” by Joel S Goldsmith

“Now on the other side of that Tape #4* of this Kailua Series you will find a very enlarged edition of the teaching of the nature of error, the nature of error as this mesmeric sense of separation from God, as this mesmeric sense of a selfhood apart from God. And the reason that this tape will always be important to you, and to all serious students of this message, is that it will give you the correct letter of truth about two vital subjects which you will not find in the literature anywhere outside of the message of The Infinite Way, and yet it forms the very basis of our work. Oh yes, you find references like, ‘the word became flesh and dwelt among us.’ Or ‘I and the Father are one.’ You will not find it brought out in this degree and with this application to life and body, to that which we call Spirit and body, or Spirit and the universe.

Now, at this time I ask you to remember that the importance of this is as a foundation to your understanding upon which you build spiritual discernment, and it is the spiritual discernment that does the actual work of healing and feeding and supplying and living. You see, out here is an appearance of evil. If we go at that appearance of evil with any sense of changing it, correcting it, healing it, improving it, battling it, we are back in the world. We are not in The Infinite Way.” ~Joel

II Chron 20:15 Be

15... Be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is not yours, but God's.

THE DAILY LESSON – March 23, 2011
From the 1955 Kailua Study Group Series –
“SCRIPTURAL PROMISES EXPLAINED” by Joel S Goldsmith

“Once we have seen that those discords are not persons or places or things, but that they are these mesmeric images in thought like that of our friend Brown in Africa who wasn’t there, then we approach this world from a spiritual standpoint, from a developed spiritual consciousness which says, ‘I can disregard appearances. The battle is not mine but God’s. I do not have to contend with so-called forces of error since now I see there aren’t any.’ And that is, itself, demonstrated, achieved Christ-Consciousness. You have achieved Christ-Consciousness in proportion as you understand the nothingness of what is appearing out here as the discords of human existence.

Now it is in the attainment of that consciousness that the healing works take place – not only of your own affairs, but of the whole world that comes within range. If you were called upon to see a whole city full of error and you understood that consciousness and body were one, inseparable and indivisible and so no danger exists to either consciousness or body. And if you could see that all of the error that can ever be presented to your seeing, hearing, tasting, touching and smelling is but the result of universal human belief and is not actually a physical being, but a mental image in thought, you would have no fear of it. And in that ‘no fear of it’ would be your degree of spiritual consciousness, and that would be the overcoming of it.” ~Joel

14 But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

15 But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man.

16 For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

(Nothing exists outside of the healing Consciousness once we develop a mind of Christ, or Spiritual discernment. ~Al)

“Now. Christ-Consciousness is that state of consciousness which does not hate, fear, or love error. Christ-Consciousness is that state of consciousness which does not hate, fear or love error. Go back and review the life of Jesus Christ and see if you can find anywhere in his mission, or message, any hate, any fear or any love of evil, and then you will see that that which constituted him the Christ was his state of consciousness which was without hate, fear, doubt or love of error.” ~Joel

38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

(Nothing can separate us from God’s Love. ~Al)

THE DAILY LESSON – March 25, 2011
From the 1955 Kailua Study Group Series –
“SCRIPTURAL PROMISES EXPLAINED” by Joel S Goldsmith

“So it is in our individual experience, we attain Christ-Consciousness by degree. We attain it, and we achieve it in a measure – not necessarily do we say that we have fully apprehended. But, at least we do know that in the degree that we no longer hate error, fear it, battle it or love it, in that degree we have attained a Christ-Consciousness, and that consciousness is the one that dispels sin, disease, death, lack, and limitation for those who bring themselves to our conscious thought, to our conscious activity.

We can never bless anyone or any group, we can never bless this world while we are hating or fearing or loving the same evils that the world hates, fears and loves. Our only degree of help is in proportion as we no longer hate, fear or love the things of this world, the hates and fears of this world, the battles of this world.” ~Joel

James 1:12

12 Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

(The temptation that we must not give in to is: accepting life in this world as separate from God’s Love. We already have everything. I already am. God already is Omnipresent. His Kingdom already is. Our mansions are already built. It is the degree of the lack of awareness of this Truth that keeps us from beholding it... ~Al)

“SCRIPTURAL PROMISES EXPLAINED” by Joel S Goldsmith

“Now. You do not prove your Christ-Consciousness by going out into the world to try to save it or reform it. As a matter of fact, you show your lack of spiritual consciousness by that means. You show your Christ-Consciousness in the degree that you can sit with the multitudes and let the multitudes come to you and draw of that light which you are. You prove the degree of your Christ-Consciousness when you can sit home and let the world impersonally come and draw from you your lack of hate, fear and battles, and love of error. You show the degree of your Christhood in the degree that you can see through the sins, hates, and fears of the world and not let them touch you.” ~Joel

John 6:44-45

44 No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.

45 It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.

(Where did the impulse come from to come to this work?

Take a moment of meditation and take the question within.....

The impulse came from the Spirit, deep within, didn't it?

If ever we drift away, stumble or get distracted, it WILL draw us back when we are ready again... And so it is, that we are all drawn in by God's Love. The still voice within. The peace that passes understanding. Each of us are drawn in a unique way, but we all hear the message of unconditional Love from the Teacher. Once you know this - you know it forever. ~Al)

THE DAILY LESSON – March 27, 2011

“SCRIPTURAL PROMISES EXPLAINED” by Joel S Goldsmith

“You see if Christ-Consciousness could save the world as a world, Jesus would have preached to all of the races and tribes around him – and more especially to the Romans who were the devils in the lives of his Hebrew people. But he passed them by. He made no effort to save them, to preach to them, to teach them, to heal them. ‘I have come only to those of my own household,’ and he didn’t mean necessarily only the Jewish race. He meant those of his spiritual state because there were many of those of the Jewish race that he would have nothing to do with, like the organized church after awhile, and so forth and so on.

Now. There is a tremendous power in the consciousness of any individual who so attains this inner union as to receive these impartations of scriptural promises. And by bringing ourselves to those who have attained some measure of that, we partake in a measure of their Grace. ‘I if I be lifted up shall draw all men’ unto that same level of consciousness. We benefit by each other’s realized Grace.” ~Joel 28 Father, glorify thy name. Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.

29 The people therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him.

30 Jesus answered and said, This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes.

“Whatever degree of Grace you and I attain, we share with each other and find it multiplied among ourselves. ‘Where two or more are gathered together’ in the same consciousness there is this power felt on even a greater degree. And that’s why it is that so much must be kept out of our consciousness of the world’s loves and hates, of the world’s fears and doubts in order that as we come together, this inflow of the Spirit can find Itself multiplied on earth. Then not only are we, individually and collectively, a blessing to all around us but to all those in far places who in some way or other have been led to reach and touch our consciousness.

Never think for a moment that these people find our consciousness by any human means. They don’t. They are spiritually directed from within, and they reach out all over the world just as we reach out all over the world to those who have illumination, and we find ourselves one with God once again. (Let’s stop a minute)” ~Joel

“Now. These affirmations or statements of truth, these declarations of truth made with the mind, have their place and that place is merely to serve as reminders of the truth of being in order that we may ultimately be led back to the actual contact Itself. But, where these affirmations and where these statements of truth are ineffectual, it is because they have stopped at the intellectual level and have not been continued until they brought us back to this contact whereby we actually receive the divine impartation from within. It is that divine impartation from within that is the word of God that comes with power – ‘quick, sharp, powerful, dividing asunder the very spirit and the soul.’” ~Joel

John 14:25,26 (to 4th ,)

“It is that word of God within us that is spoken to us, or uttered within us, or felt within us, or realized or achieved within us – that divine impulse recognized and realized, that is the power in the world and that it is that goes out and does the work of blessing.

The other part – the intellectual awareness of all this – those are but steps that must eventuate in an experience, and it is the experience that is the healer. It is not you or I as a person that is a healer. It is the experience of realization, the experience of contact, the experience of impartation – that is the healer, and without it nobody is a healer no matter how good they may be, no matter how virtuous they may be, no matter how kind and loving and generous and thoughtful they may be. That does not constitute a healer. The healer is Christ Itself realized.

Thank you.” ~Joel

John 14:5,6

5 Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?

6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

John 14:10-14

10 Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

11 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake.

12 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father.

13 And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

14 If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it.

(This is a Divine Promise! The Word made flesh.

When Christ-Jesus gave these promises, it was the Word of the Father within him and through him doing it, not the person.

And, he didn't say, think about it, contemplate it or work on these principals, he said BELIEVE IT.

When the Christ is realized all things are possible. I am the Way. I am unconditional Love, trust Me with all thy heart and Soul. It's time now, to leave your this-world intellectual knowledge of God in this-world; be still, be unaffected, rejoice - and let Christ live your Life for you. ~Al)
